Dear Kenny, boobs
Well, Ken boy, looks like you're going to graduate and have me up at the good 'ol' B.H.S. by myself
All the teachers may be glad, but I sure won't be. Seriously, you've got to be the greatest guy on earth. What being great, you're pretty. Some pretty
I want? We'll share
... all last summer, up at Gayle's, Dana's wedding about us is that will have many more were done. I may even cure your fear of that be great? No really, I think the world of A girl memories
The good thing memories before tarantulas! Won't that you! I Love you, Glynna

Dewey,
To one of my best friends. Too bad we're not going to be at the same school next year. I remember the first time we met. You hated my guts. I'm glad we got to be friends. NO matter what happened you always remained a true friend. If you ever need anything just call. I'm going to miss not raising hell with you. We've had a lot of good times together. Come down to U.T. on and I'll show you a good time. Seriously. A great friend of yours, Larry Taylor

Kenny,
Well, I've been great knowing you and I'm sure we can have many more. Keep a careful eye on the future. Good luck. Steve

Penny,
Our last year has finally come and it's kinda sad. We have been friends for a long time and I hope we can always be friends. You are a very great person with a nice personality. Good luck in the future. Keep in touch always!
Love always!

The shadows of our school
lengthen as it matures.
Days go by,
but to us, the students,
it is unchanging.
It signifies a part of our lives that we will always remember.

Kenny,
It's been fun having you in English & speech. Merging up a little. I'm glad this years coming to an end and we'll be graduated Seniors. Stay sweet!

Love,
Nancy

The aim of every school is to increase the knowledge of its students.
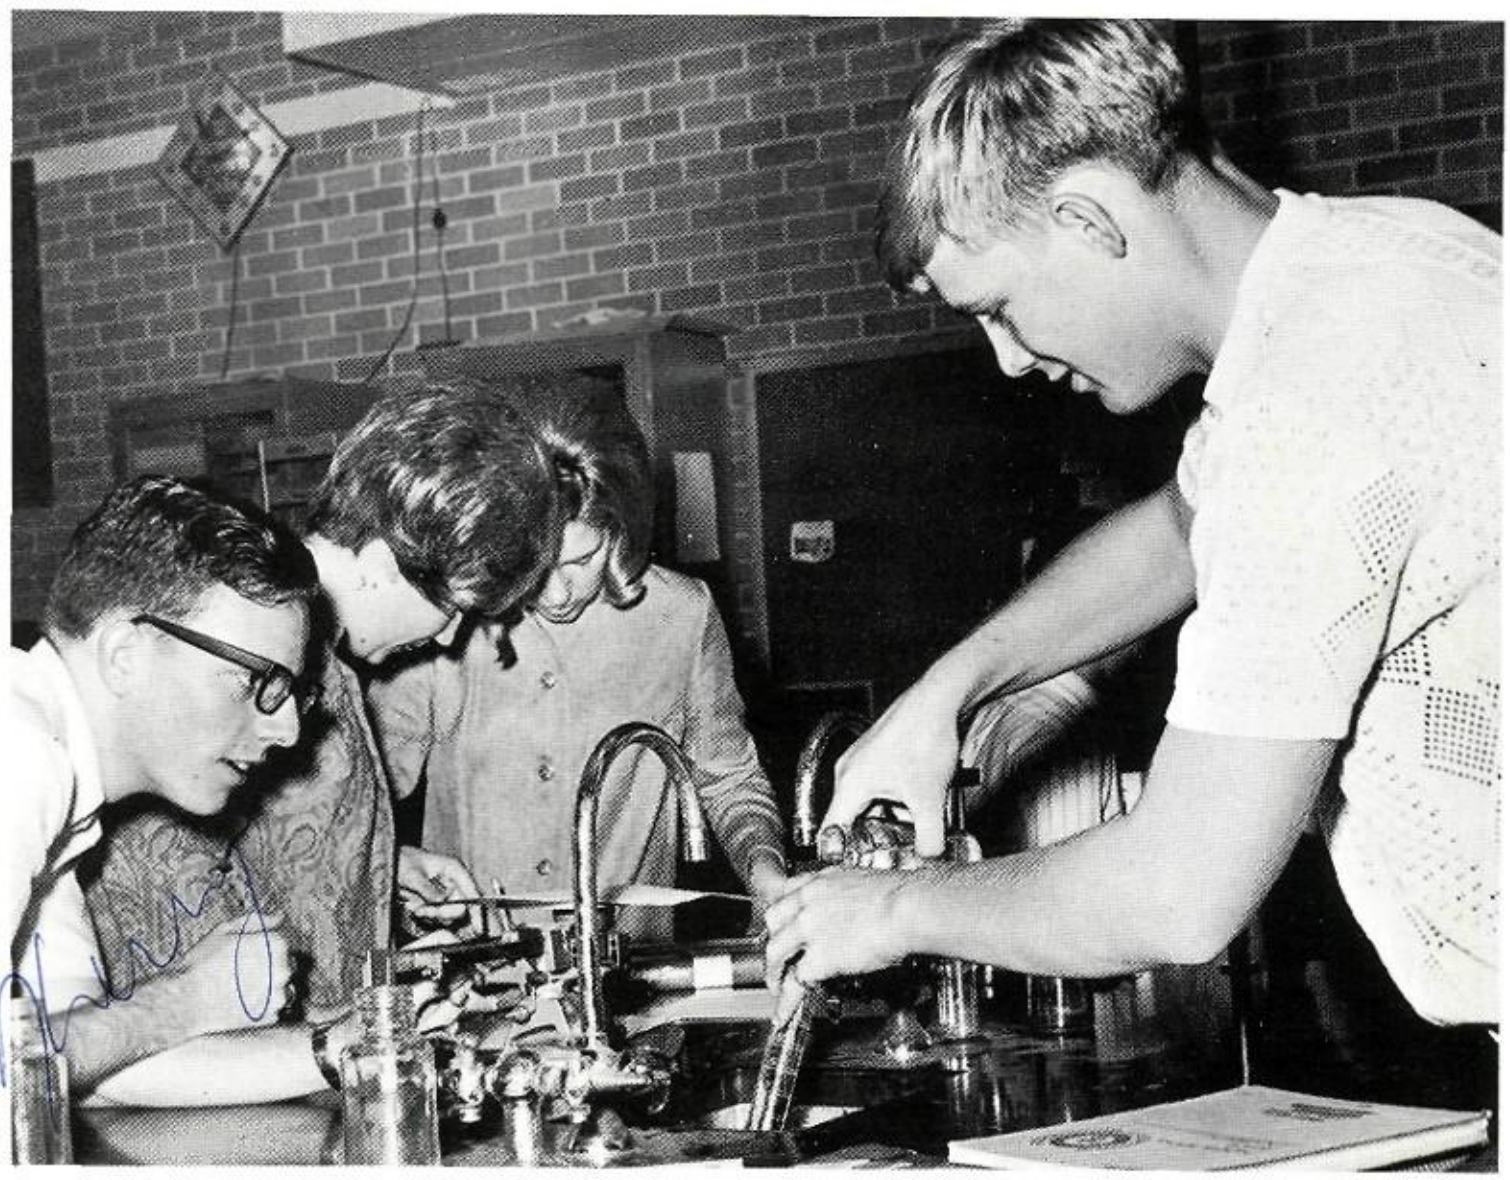
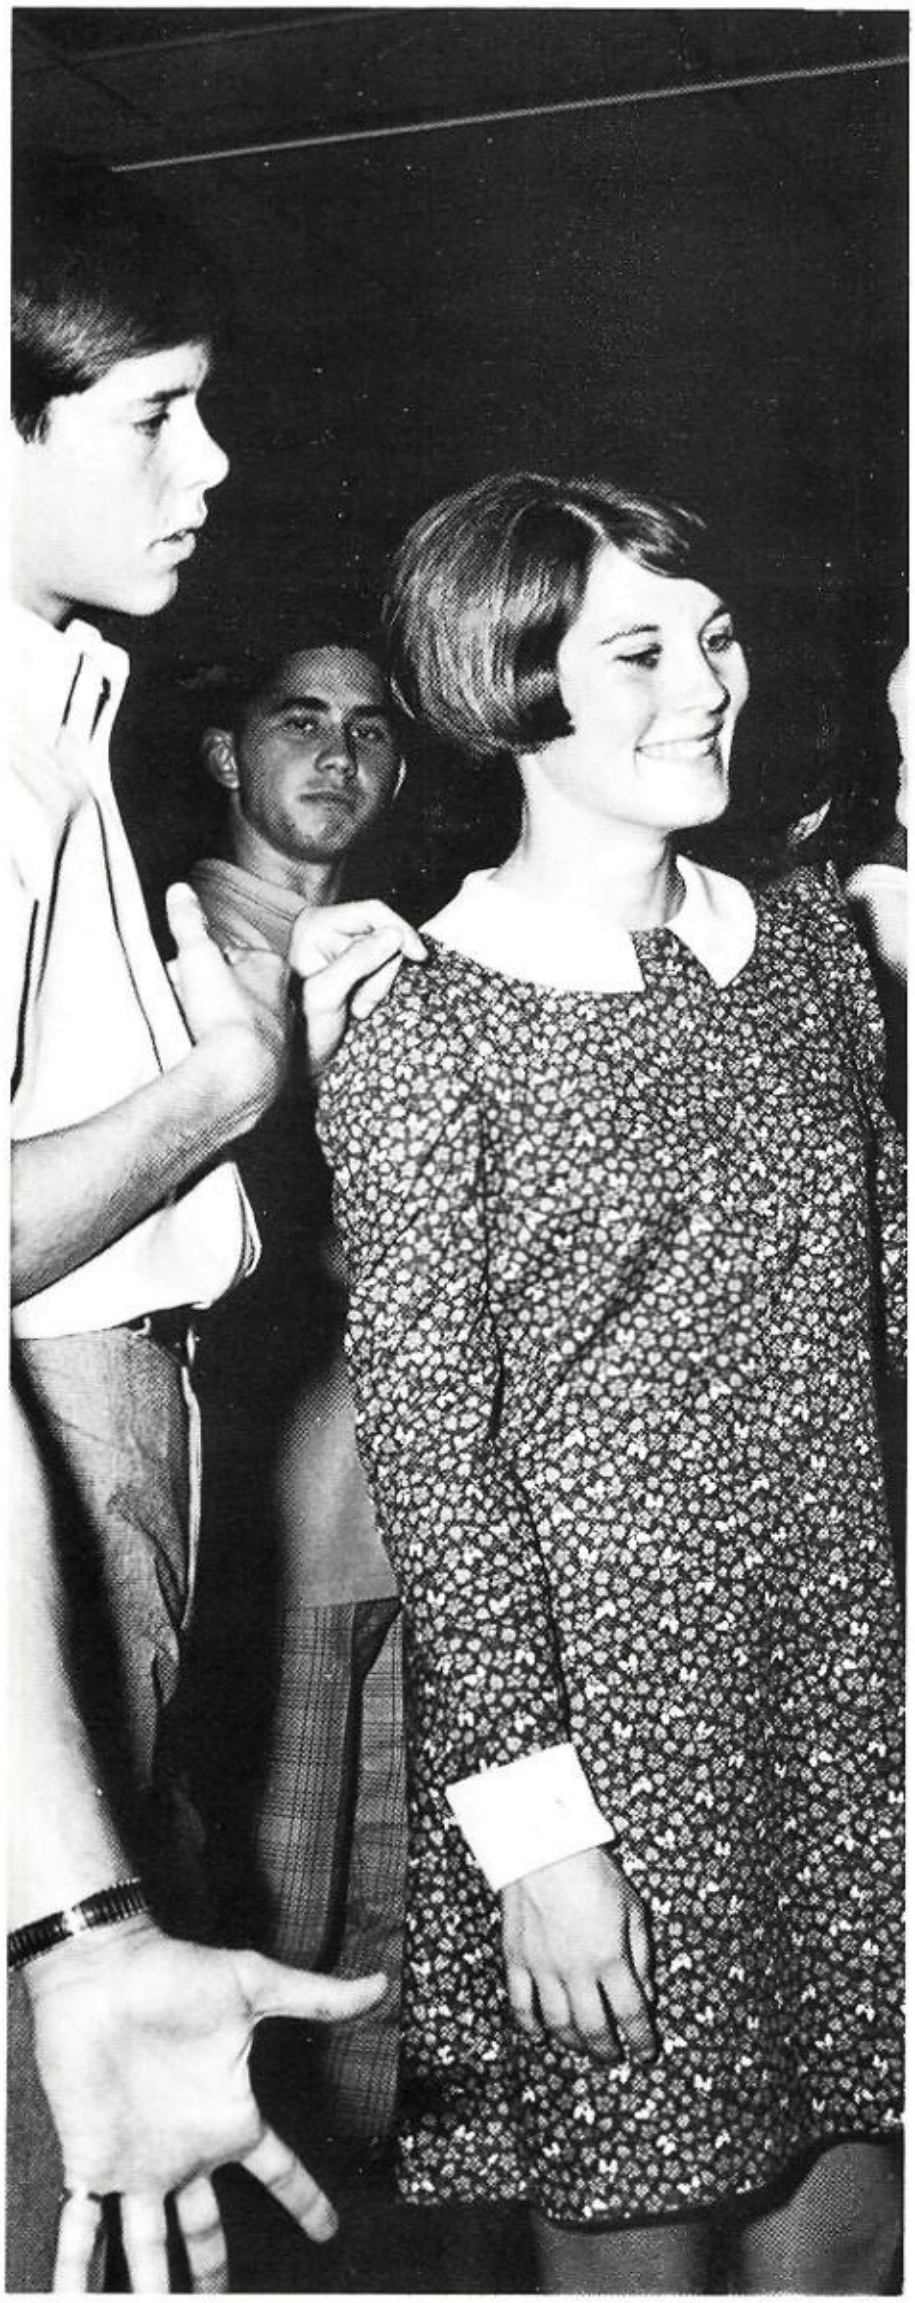
It prepares us for the future
we will far too quickly face.
Although we often tire of it,
it is our security.





Kenny
You seem to be a warm type of person- you certainly helped English go faster this year! Good Luck in future years although I'm sure you won't need too much luck with all
God has given you.
Jean Williams
S R '69.

The shadows of smiles
are ever present.
They express feeling far better than any words.
These smiles represent a major part of every school –
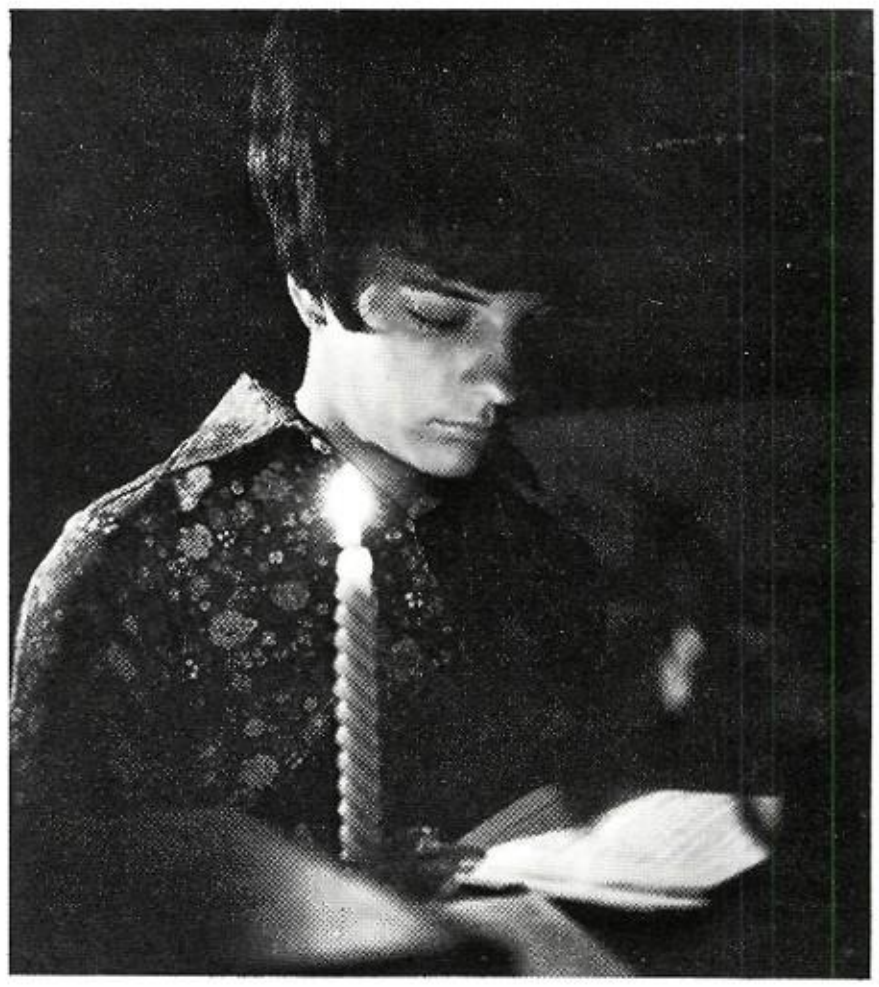
the people.



Kenny,
We finally made it to the top. Remember when we were 3rd and 4th graders and Miss Mann. Now that we have made senior which doesn't really seem possible. I am happy to say that you will always be admired by me and I am glad that we had good times this year, faith and teamwork and all the hi-5's meeting at 1st hour helped both of us to learn more about other people. I hope that the future years for you will be as rewarding as the past ones.
Bill Schwarzbach

Life continues,
and spring arrives.
All movements slow into lazy days,
and study seems impossible.
The shadows of the past and the future
surround us.

Yea!

Steers!

I shall be telling
this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence.

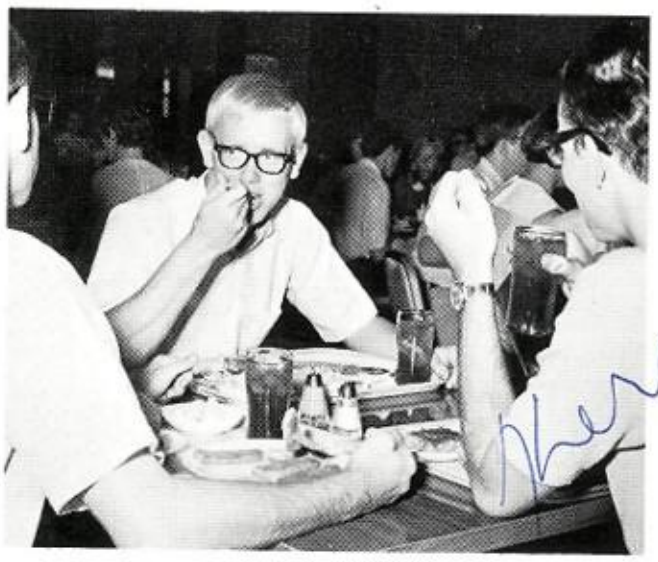
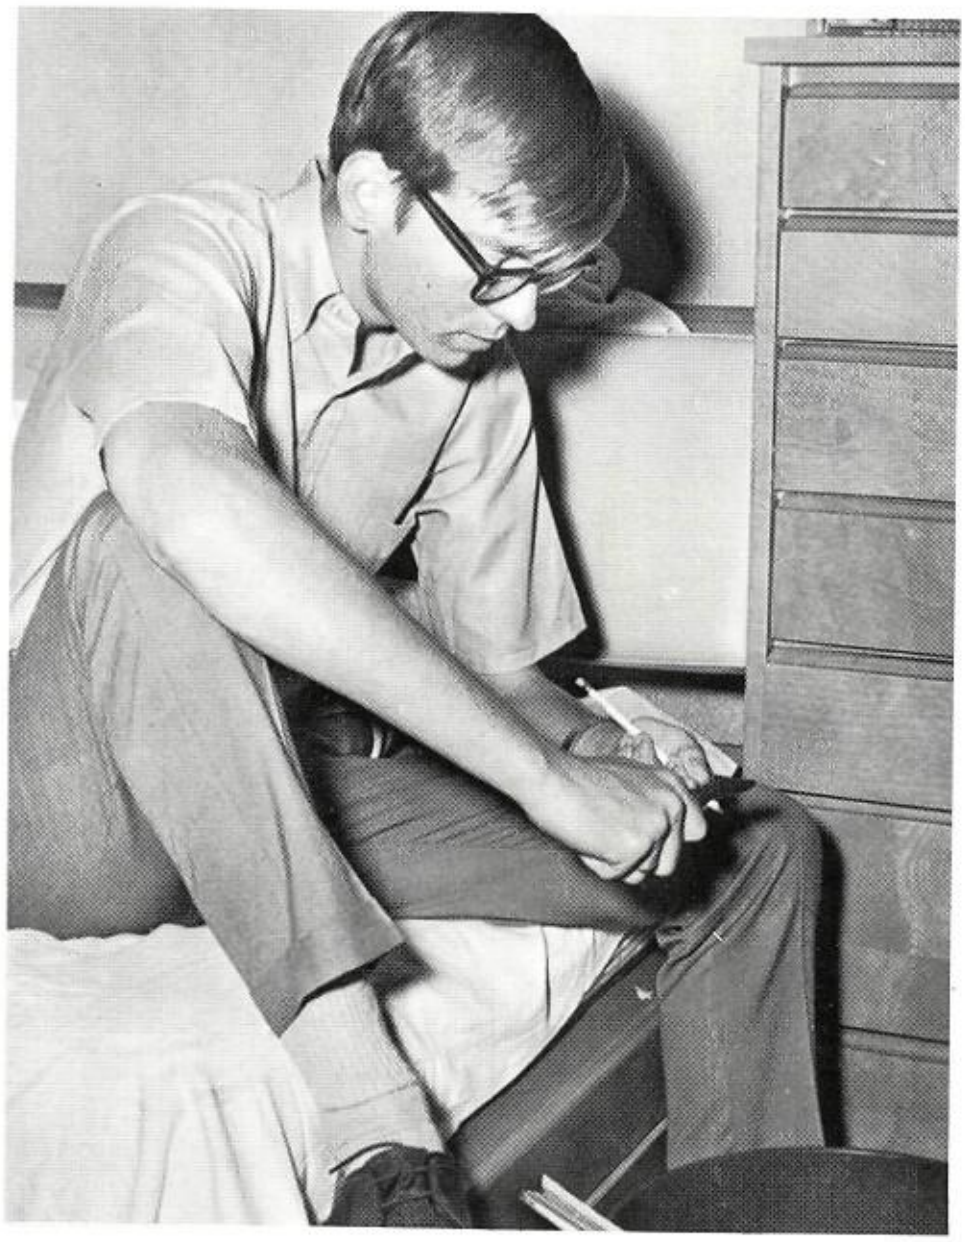
Summertime Fun Fades Into Fall Frenzy



Charles Kimble, Johnny Rutherford, and Kerry Gunnels loved the food at the Tech Publication Workshop.

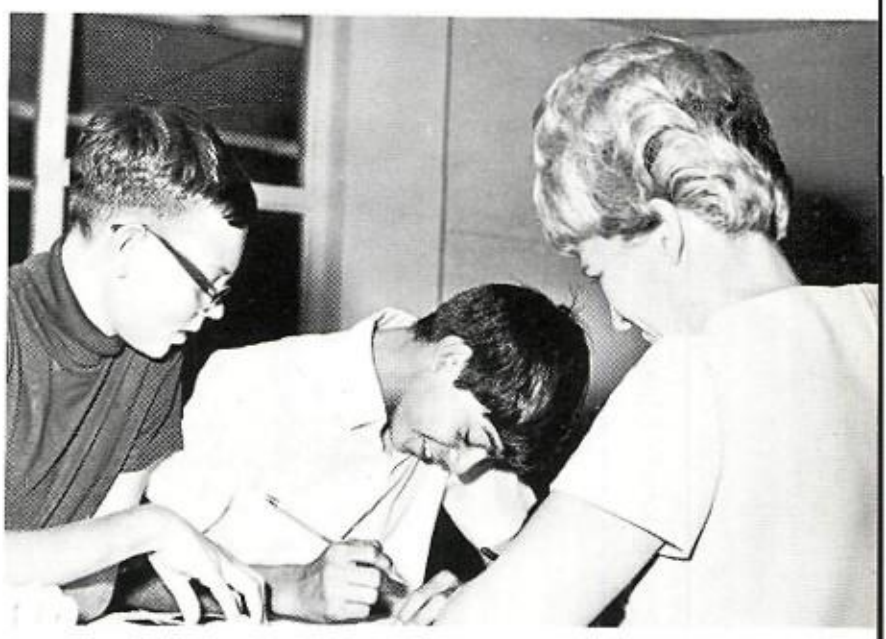


Steve Cofer couldn't find one pencil sharpener on the Tech campus.

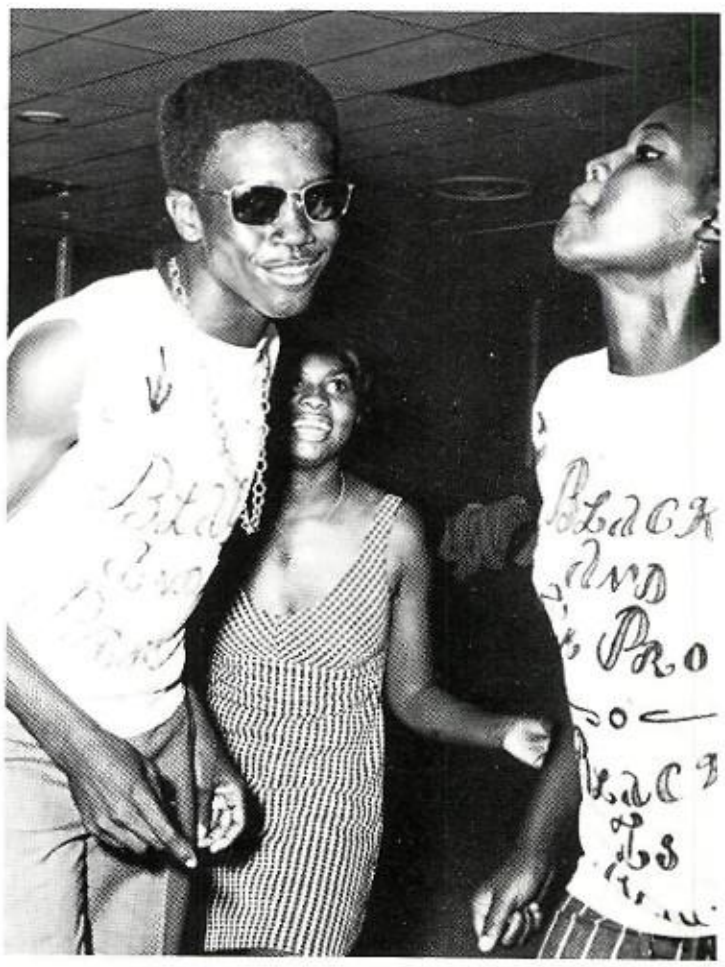
To show that workshops aren't all play, Glynna Jones and Linda Crawford labor over layouts.

Paula Green lauds the values of ice cream and cookies.

Although they were far from idle during the summer, students really began to move into high gear as school opened. Fresh from workshops, many were eager to try out new ideas. The rush of picking up schedules, buying parking permits, and changing schedules faded into the fun of the Howdy Dance, Ice Cream Social, and other club activities.



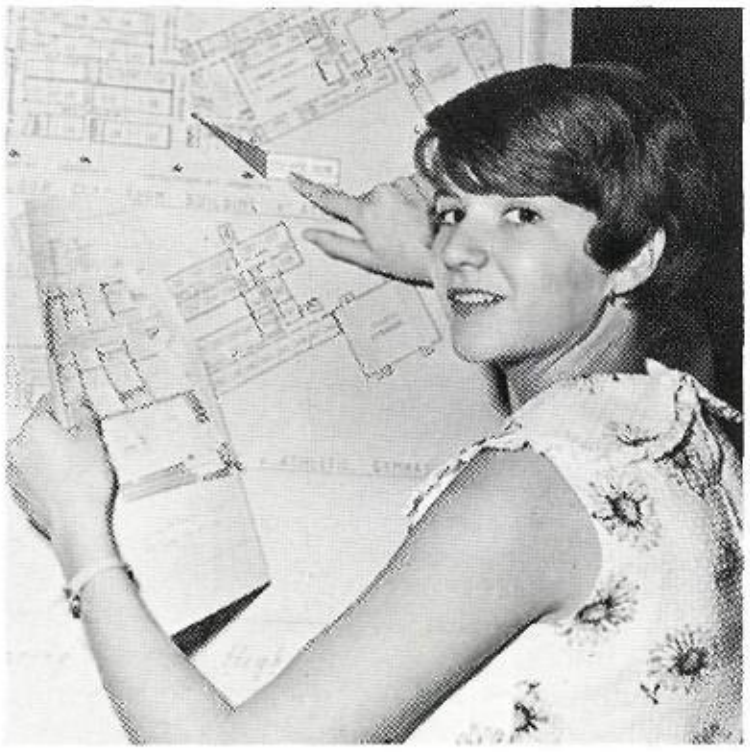
Harold Wesley and Robert Rocho buy parking permits from Mrs. Mullins.



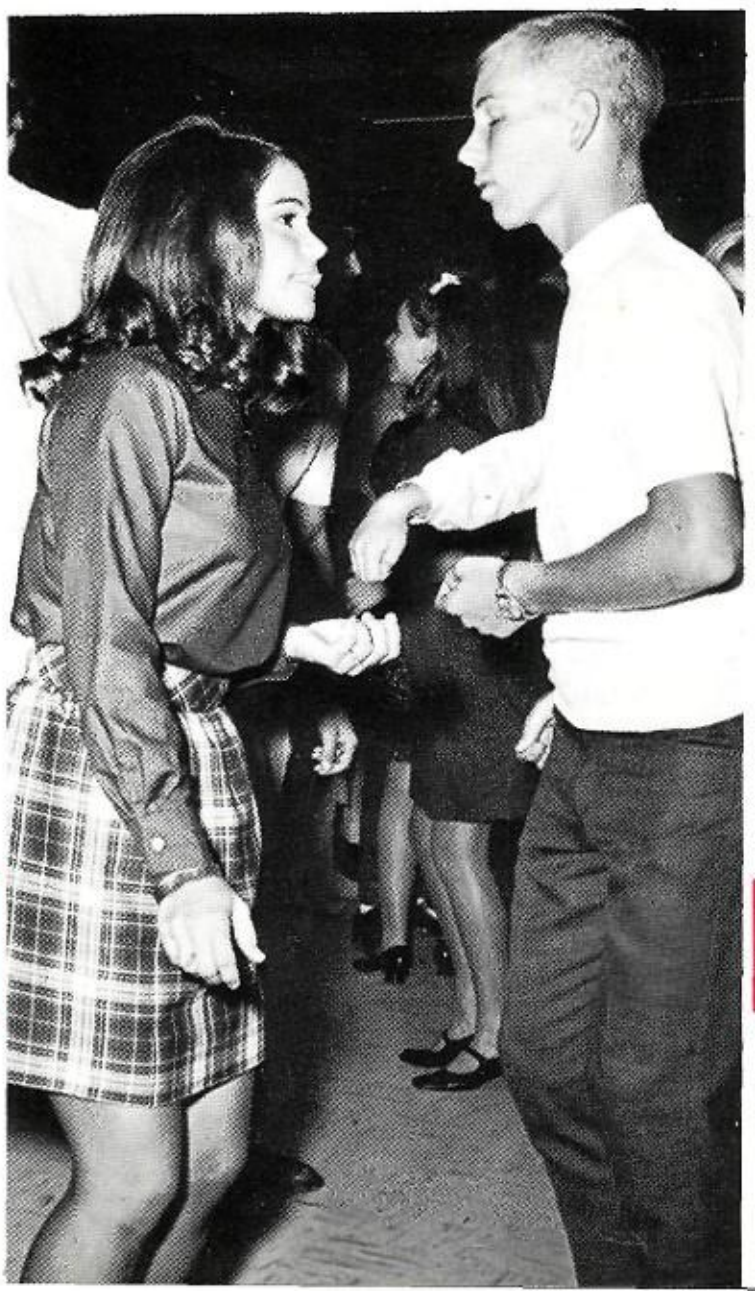
Harry Crosby, Winifred Miller, and Delores Wrightsil dance to the music of the Soul Skaters.

Students Enter Into The Swing Of Things

Fidel Tovar and Tommy Butler do the honors at the Teacher Reception.



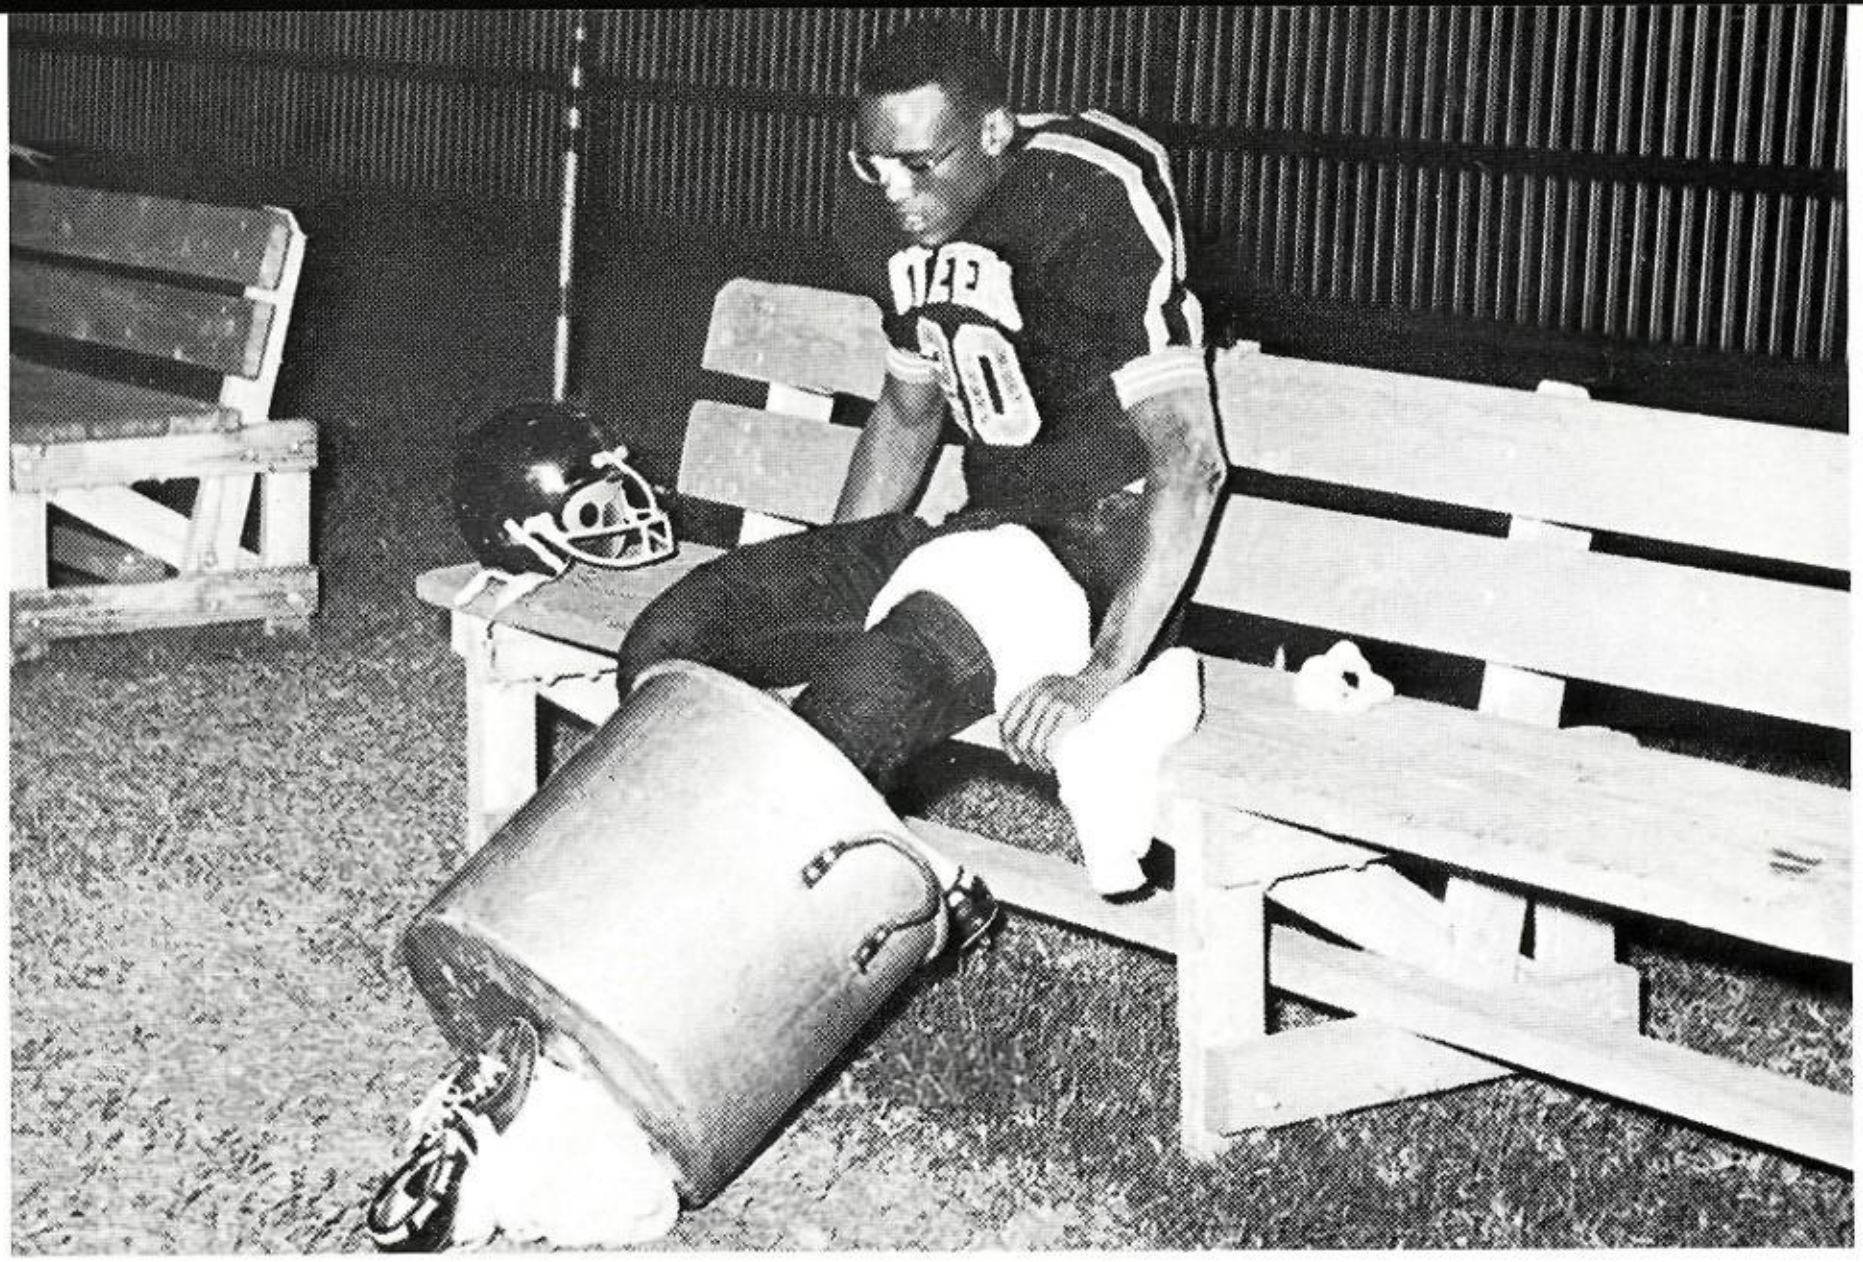
Freshman Connie Gary has finally solved her problem.



Anne Talbot and Gary Hinds are involved in the music at the Howdy Dance.

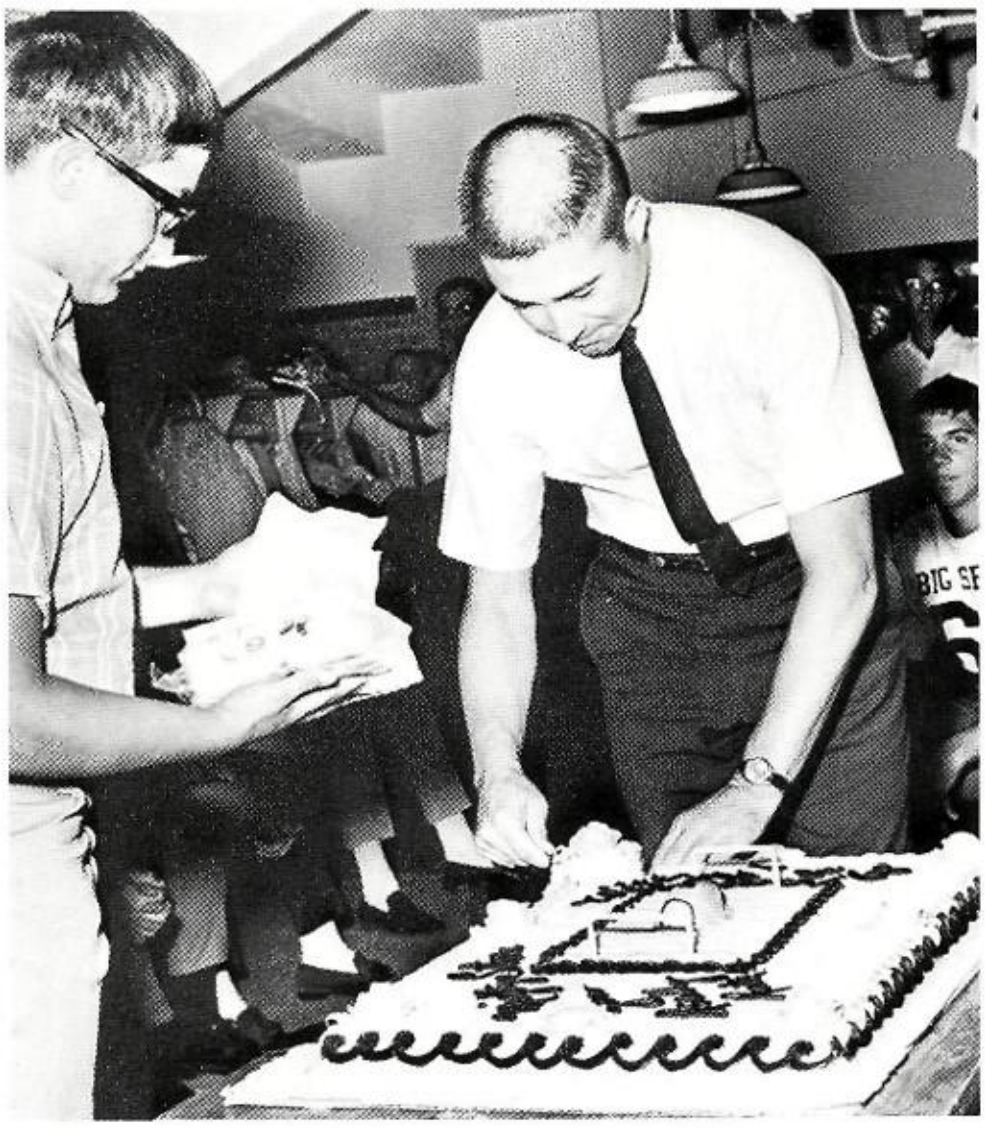
FHA members hobnob as they feast on the ice cream at the ice cream social.

Students cool their heels awaiting schedule changes.



Roy Lee Warren unwillingly took a time out.

A cheerleader's spirit is soul-stirring.



Coach Parker serves David Mesker a piece of spirit cake.

Spirit

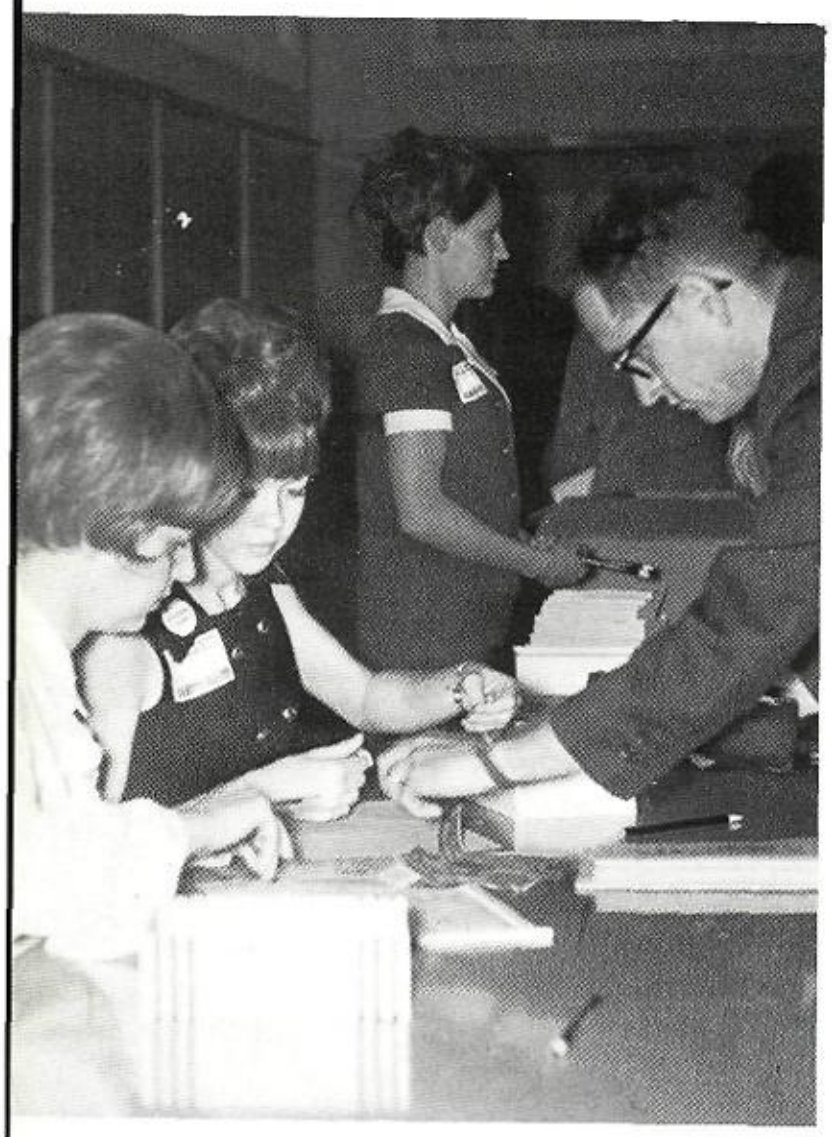
Is The Name Of The Game

Mrs. Jane Smith delivers a stirring speech.

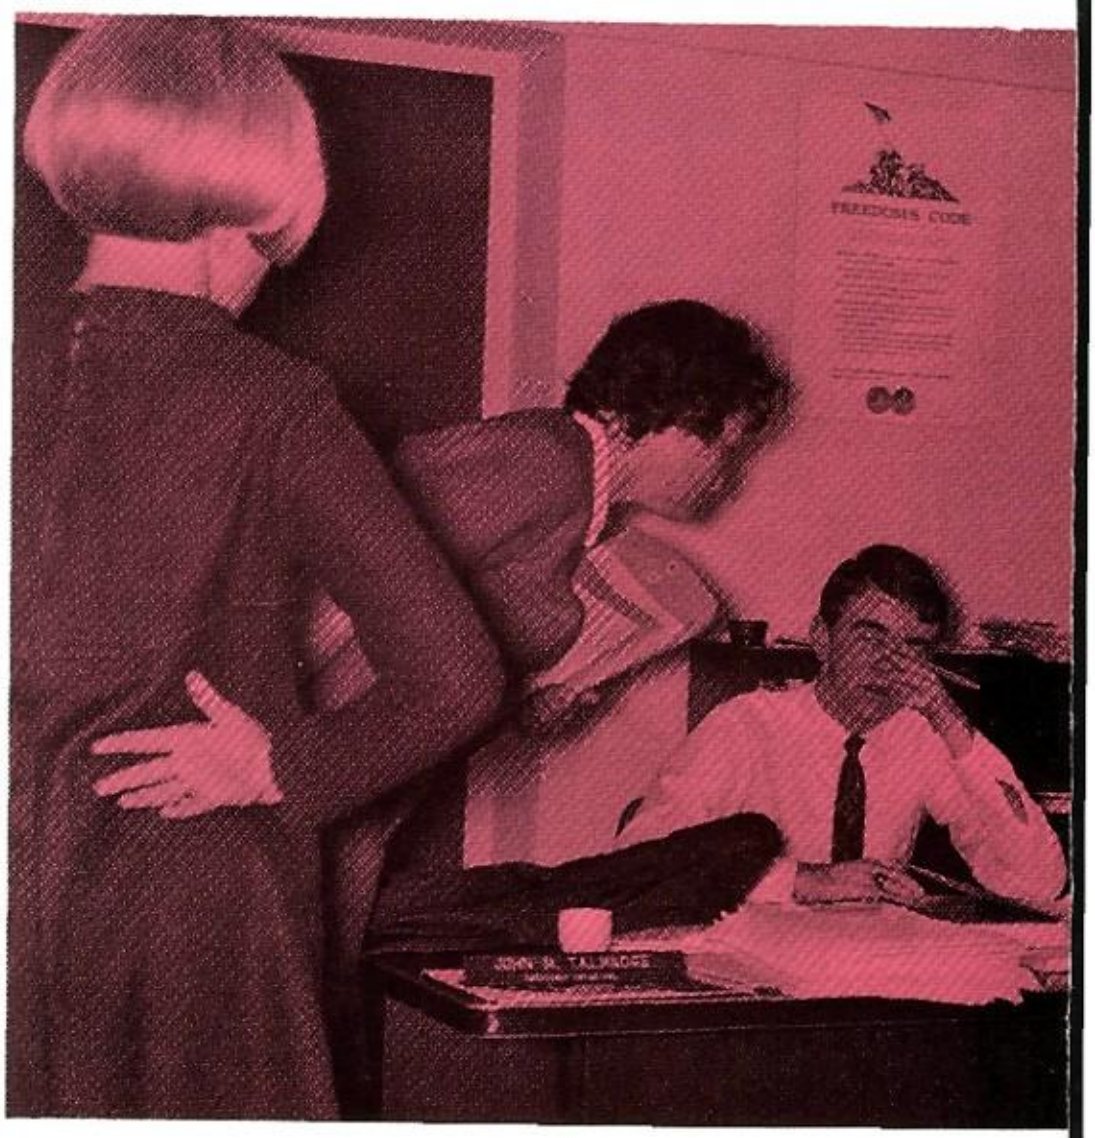
Vince Lombardi said, "Winning isn't everything, but wanting to win is." Every student has this desire ingrained within; he lives with it every day and night. Although the competition is great, he wants to be best in all that he does. When defeated, it's not a matter of life and death, but a matter of picking himself up and riding the crest of the wave of spirit toward his next test. Spirit is not only the name of the game; it is a way of life.

Teachers and students alike get into the act at the pep rally.

Student Council Hosts West Texas Forum



Elizabeth Moore, Susie Armstrong, and Debbie Cathey managed the table for unregistered schools.

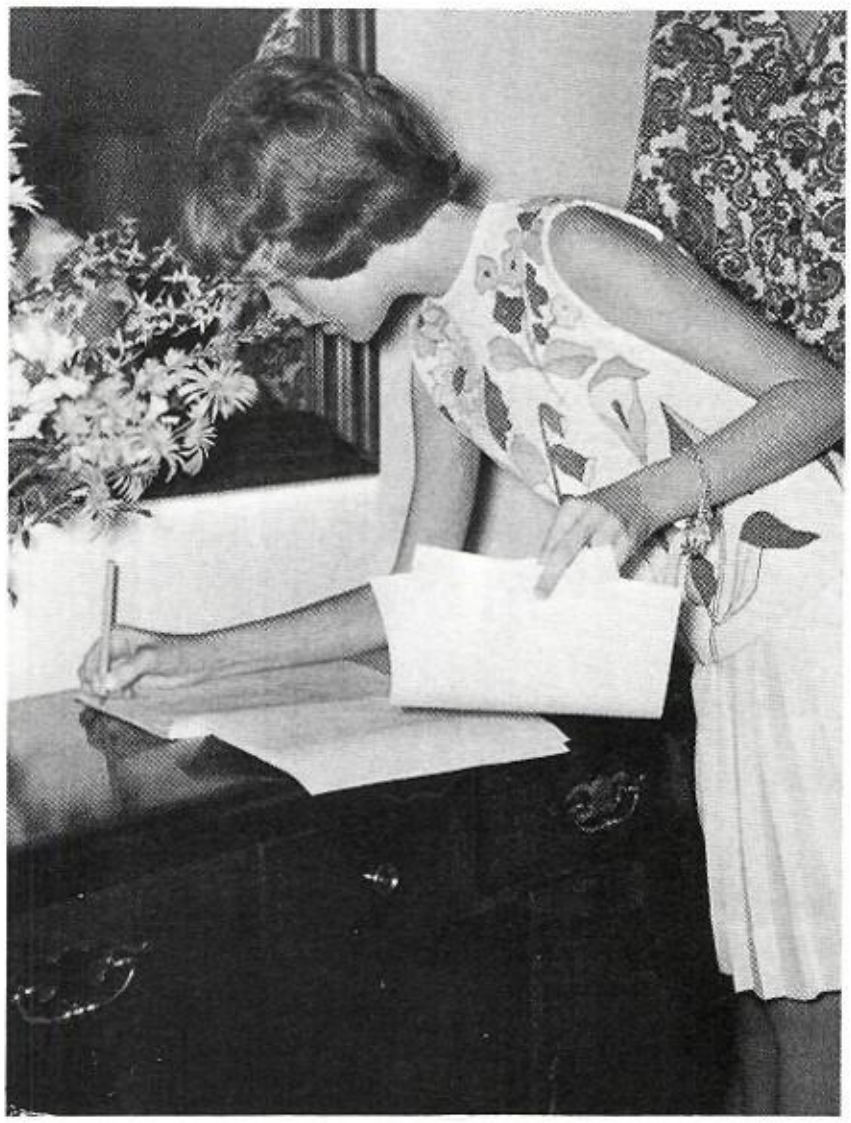


Council president James Newman discovered that even prestige has its headaches.

Saturday, October 5th, was a hectic and frenzied day for the members of the student council. The convergence of over 500 student council members from all over West Texas to the BSHS campus climaxed the plans and efforts of the last few months.

Sherry Wooley, George Ann Patton, and Jane Thompson supervised the distribution of materials as Tommy Polk looked on.

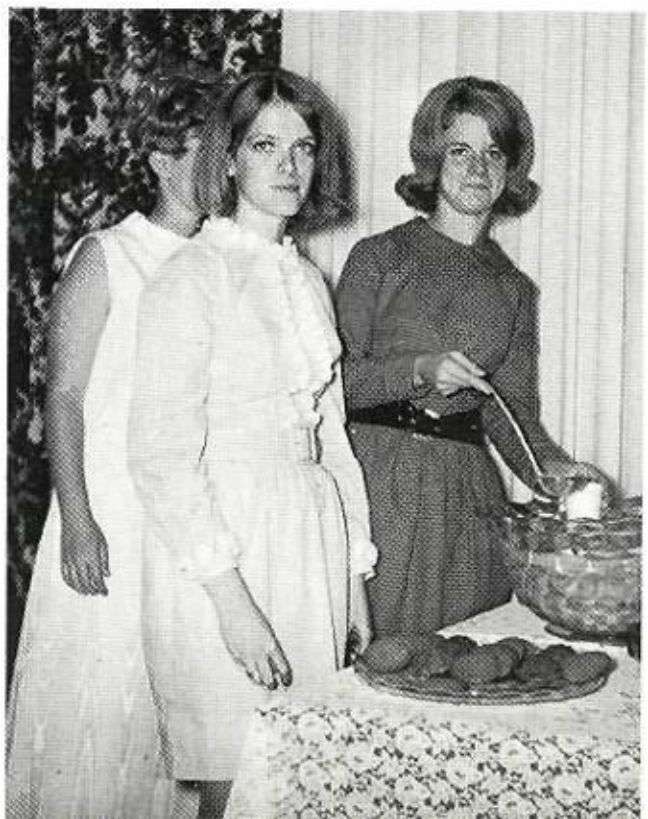
Mrs. Thames and daughter, Kelley, wait for a glass of punch.



A freshman FHA member signs the register at the reception.

FHA Installs Officers

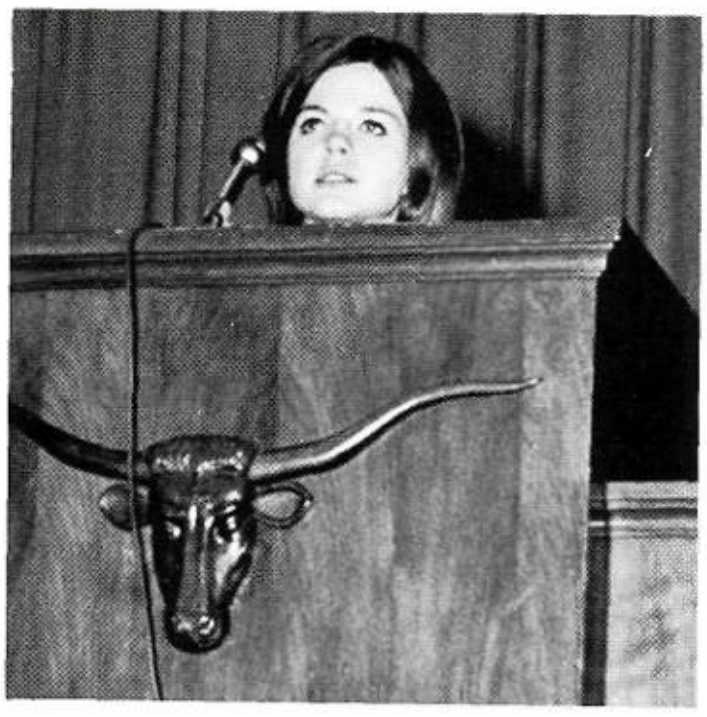
Ten girls were inducted into their FHA offices by last year's president, Mrs. Mike Schafer. Lorrie Watkins assumed the presidency and conducted the initiation of the freshmen. A reception in the homemaking department concluded the events.



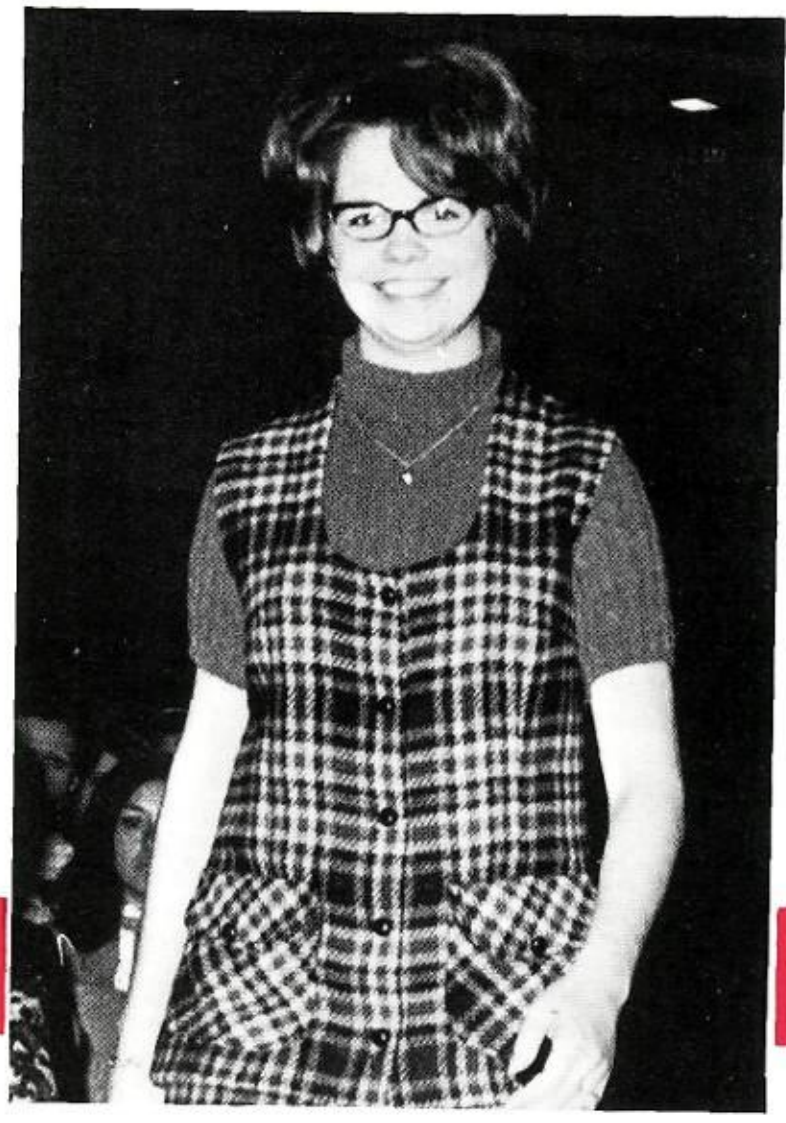
Shelley Greer and Debbie Hardison tend the punch bowl.

NHS Membership Swells To 85

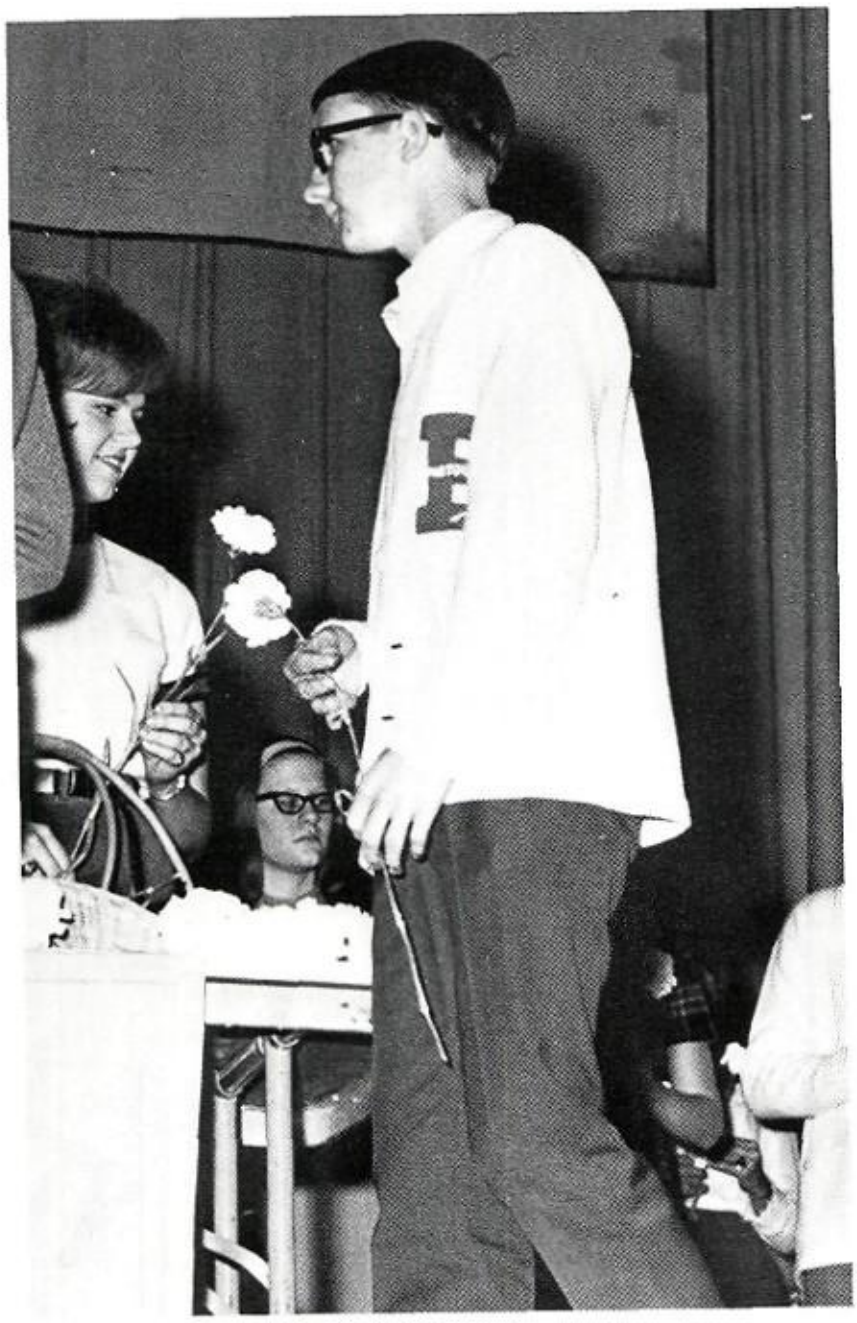
The new members await a briefing on club rules following the ceremony.



Anne Robinson speaks on leadership.



This is a thrilling moment for Diana Langley.



Scott Medford prepares to light his candle.

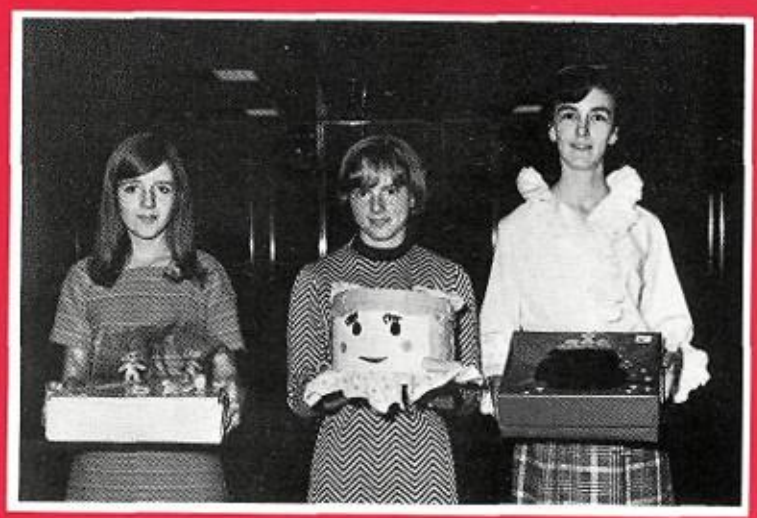
Before being considered for membership in the NHS, the 52 inductees had to possess certain qualities. In the traditional ceremony before both their parents and fellow students, four students commented on these. Ruth Russell, Herbert Ward, Anne Robinson, and Stanford Stewart spoke on character, scholarship, leadership and service. Inductees must also maintain a 90 or above average.

Ruth Russell lights the symbolic candle for character.

Patti Spier receives her carnation from Elizabeth Moore.

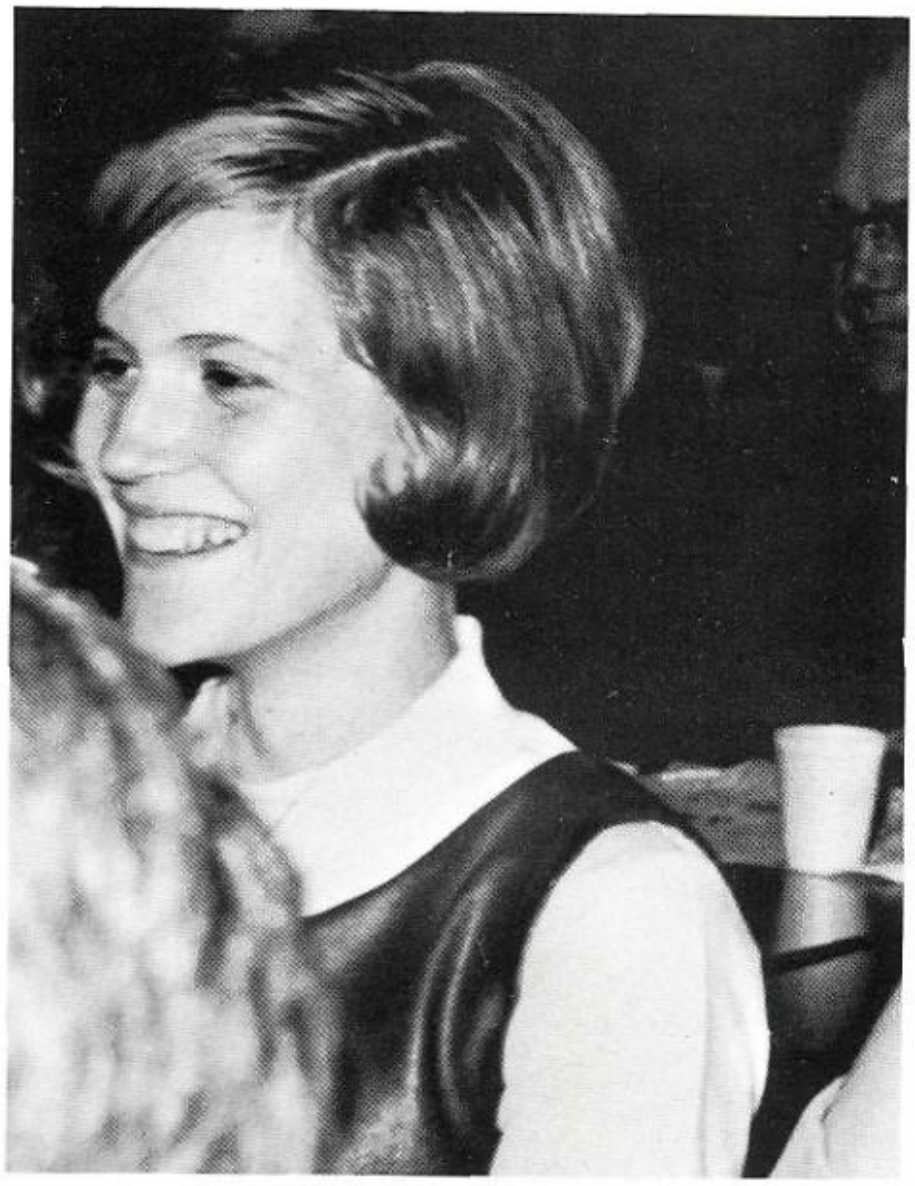
FHA'ers Honor Dads

Glenna Brown and her father shared the box of food she prepared.



Kelley Thames', Vicki Annen's and Mary Corson's boxes placed in the top three.

Dads and daughters got together for the annual FHA Daddy Date Night. The girls packed box suppers in decorated boxes and competed for prizes. Judging the boxes was Mike Alexander, FHA beau. Kelley Thames won first place with Vicki Annen and Mary Corson capturing second and third places. Monnie Watkins served as mistress of ceremonies.



Considering her grin, Linda Crawford must have gotten quite a chuckle from the last joke.

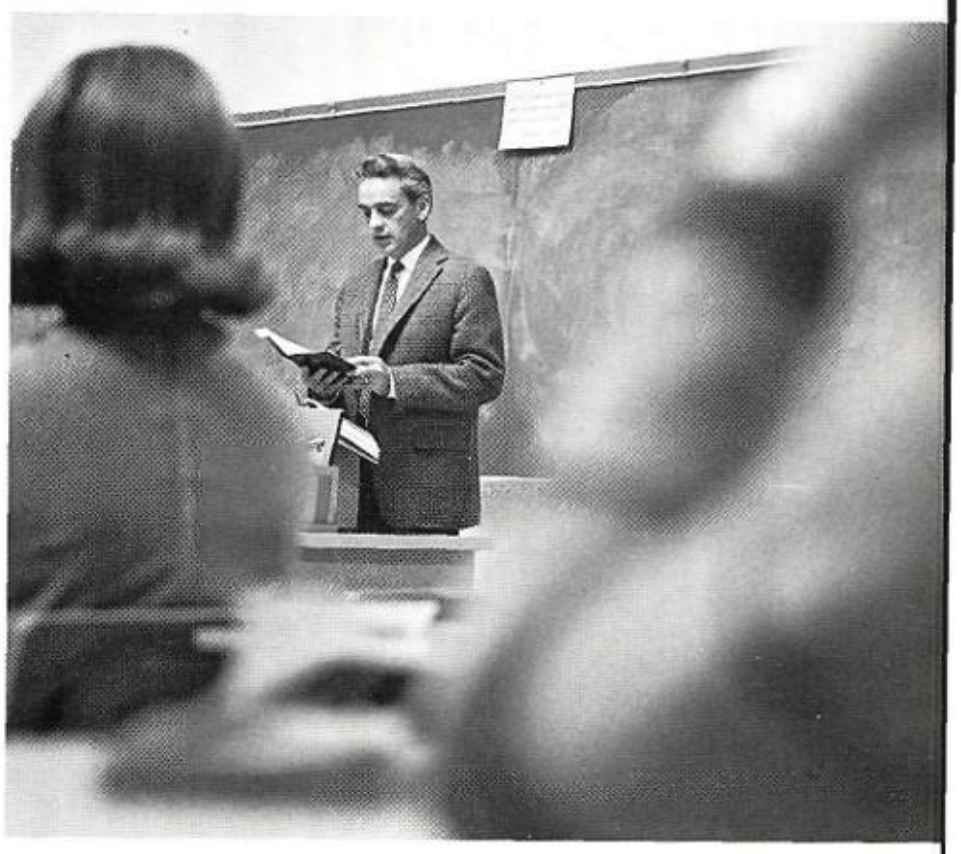
Mr. Roy Watkins, father of Monnie and Lorrie, had twice the job of the other dads.

Notables Appear On Campus

Mrs. Joyce Ellis shows Fred Gipson around the Book Fair.

During the year many important people sojourned to the BSHS campus. The Book Fair afforded us the opportunity of meeting Fred Gipson, author of Old Yeller. Members of the X-15 Program visiting Webb took precious time to inform students on the Aero-Space Program. In a student council sponsored assembly, Dr. No-Young Park gave students a taste of Chinese philosophy.

Leonard Eggen, Dr. Calvin Chapman, Mr. John Talmadge, Major Donald Kutyna, and Bill Dana inspect the planetarium.



Mrs. Jane Smith's English classes enjoys hearing Dr. Milton Talbot read John Brown's Body.

Students Recognized At Half-Time Ceremonies

Carolyn Newman, escorted by Adrain Saldivar, was crowned Band Queen by Dee Elrod, Band President.

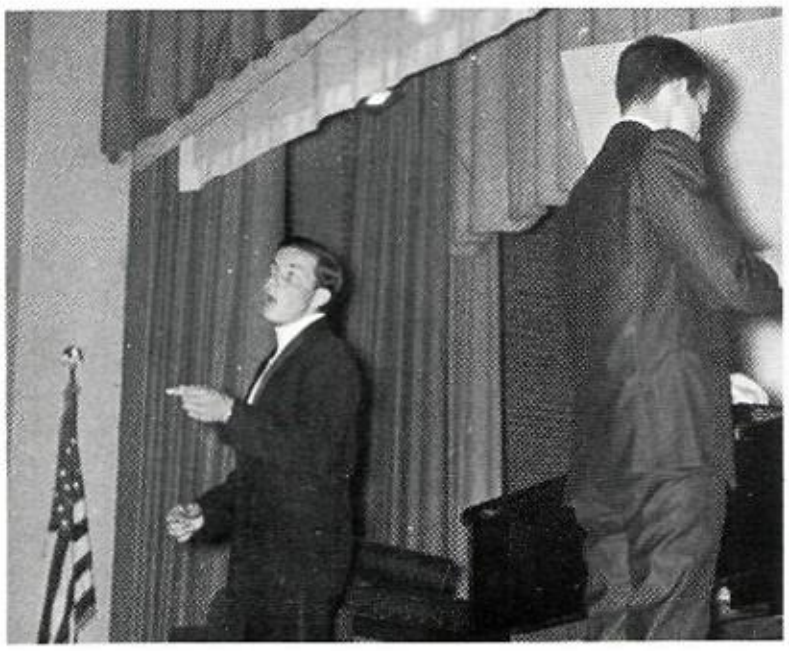
The Youth Optimist Award recognizes two outstanding BSHS students every year. This year the recipients of the award were Anne Robinson and Gerald Smith. Other nominees were Ruth Russell, Pat Macklin, Elizabeth Moore, James Persons, and Lynn Cauley.

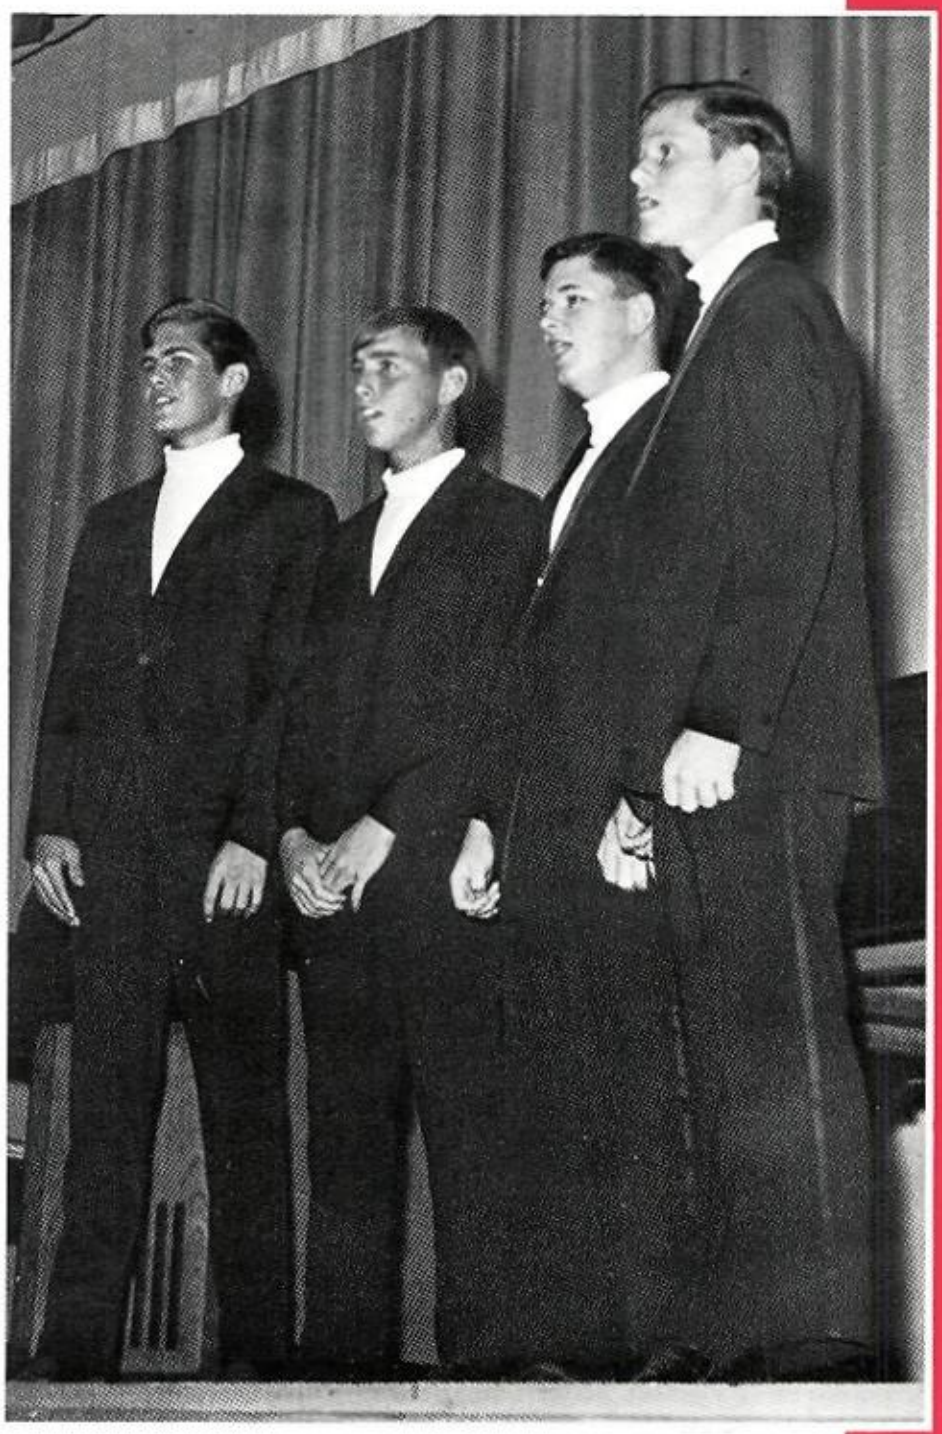
The Band Queen was chosen by fellow band members for her many contributions to the band. Carolyn Newman was crowned by Dee Elrod. Other nominees were Jan Toland and Sharon Swim.

Pops Concert Brings Down The House

The variety of the music at the Pops Concert displayed the versatility of the choirs and the members. Many turned the tables and accompanied the choir on the piano, guitar, string bass, and bongo. Among the selections were "Going Out of My Head," "Down in Trinidad," and "Dry Bones." Also included in the program was "God's Trombones" with poems by James Weldon Johnson.



"The Devil's Gonna Get You," warns Mark Shaver.



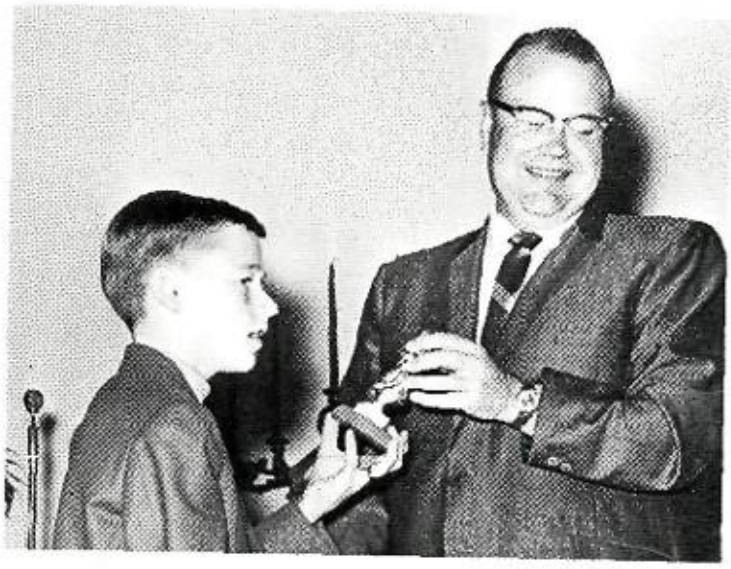
Brad Cederburg, Keith Graumann, Steve Pyles, and Roger Dickson thank heaven for little girls.

Mrs. Janelle Davis reads the part of the Prayer Leader in "God's Trombones."

Selections of spiritual, folk, and pop music are sung by the A Cappella Choir.

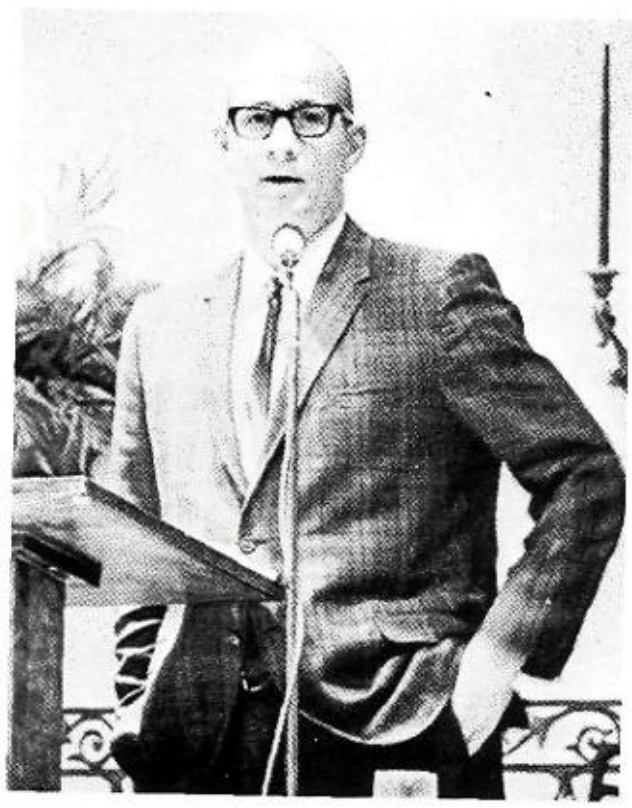
Banquet Follows Hectic Marching Season

The music makers of BSHS held their annual get together at the Cosden Country Club with Jim Baum as guest speaker. The banquet was a welcome respite following a hectic marching season, and the ten best marchers were awarded the ultimate – Barneys. Melvin Chappell received the John Philip Sousa Award for his outstanding musical ability. All eyes were turned toward a busy concert season.



Mr. Bradley demurely presents Kent Fish with a Barney Award.

Becky James receives a baby bottle for being such a doll from Mr. Turner.



Local radio announcer, Jim Baum, was the guest speaker.

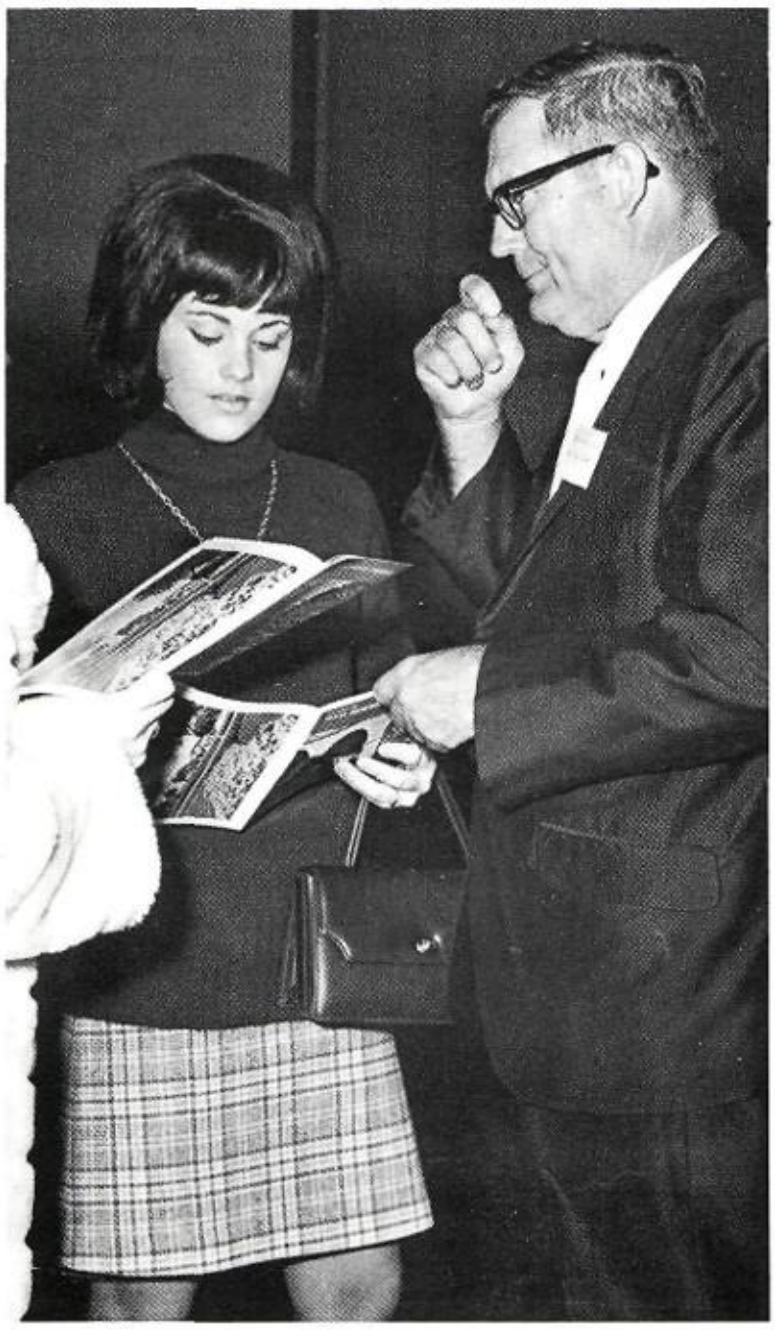
Melvin Chappell proudly accepts the John Philip Sousa Award.

Comedies and College Night Provide Entertainment Variety

Mr. Wayne Bonner of HCJC talks with Kenny Williams.

The variety of entertainment around the campus was not limited. During one week, students could choose either the comedies put on by the Supper Theater or College Night. They might even have attended both. The plays drew favorable crowds as did College Night.

Belinda Gonzales distainfully watches as Steve Austin helps Audon Saldivar to the chair during a rehearsal for A Sunny Morning.



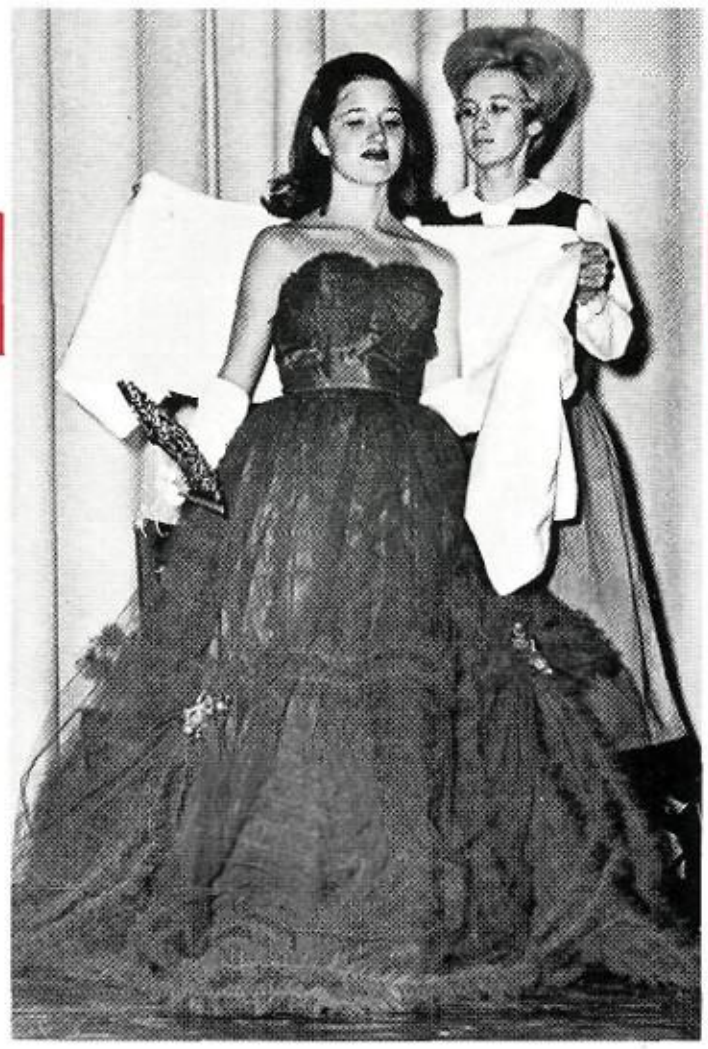
Jo Lynn Adams attends a session with Dr. Boze of Texas Tech.

"Your dreams reveal your suppressed desires," explains Janet Perry to Barbara Todd.

Joyful Noise Is Set to Music for Sing

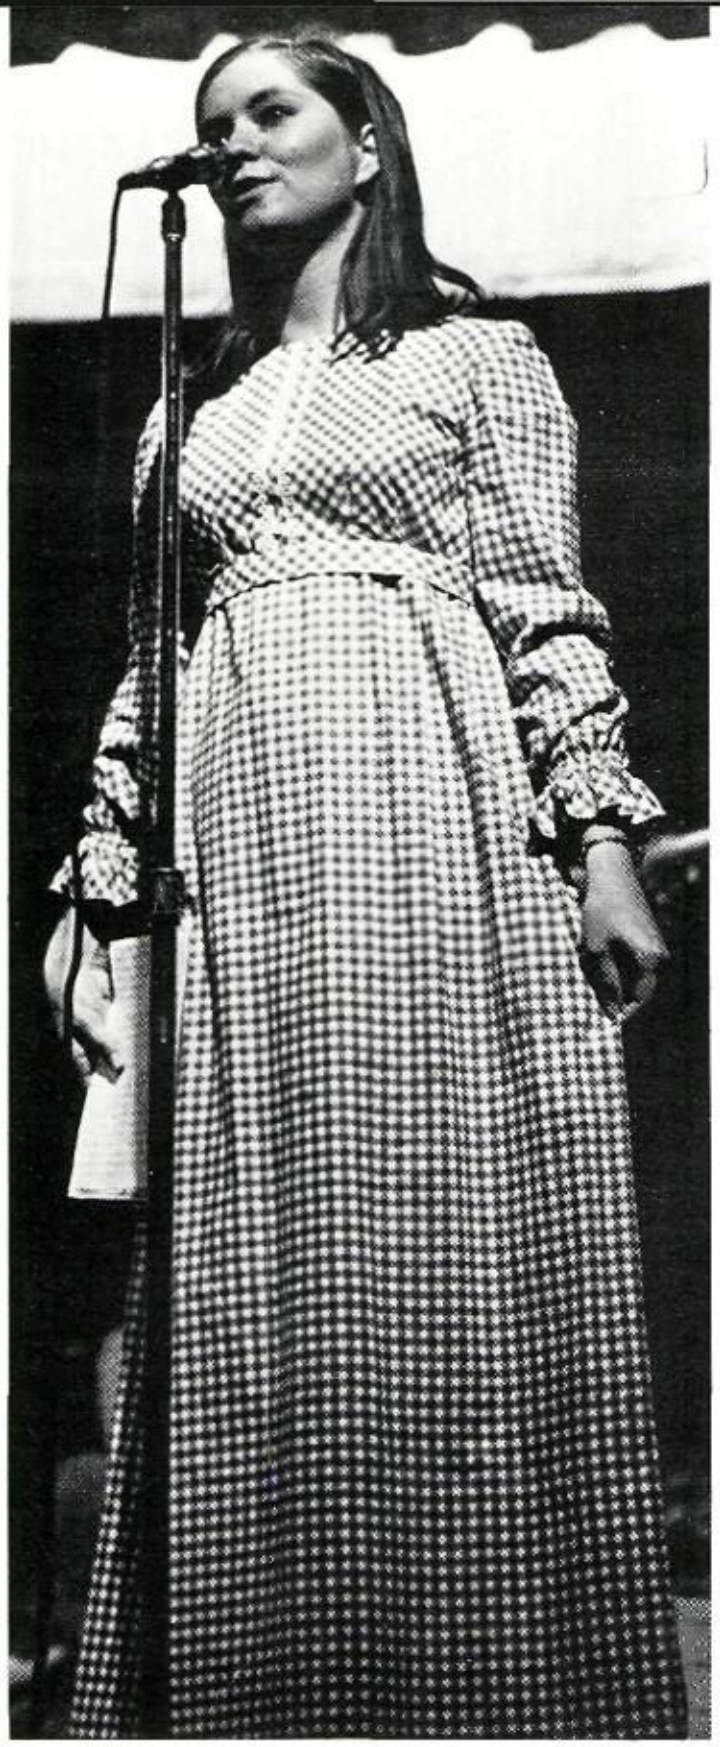
"Those good ole days may not have been so good after all," confesses Rita Kay Langley as Wanda Williams helps untangle her skirt.

Big Chief Toni Wooley leads lesser tribe members Mary Dirks, Belinda Gonzales, and Debra Buchanan in their rendition of "Cherokee Nation."



"Did the shoe fit, Cinderella?" asks Raynette Miller of Lorrie Watkins.

Students Make Their Own Kind Of Music



Sharon Swim narrates the skit for the Shorthand Club.

After successfully knocking off Do-Bad Jones, the members of the Student Council belly up to the bar.

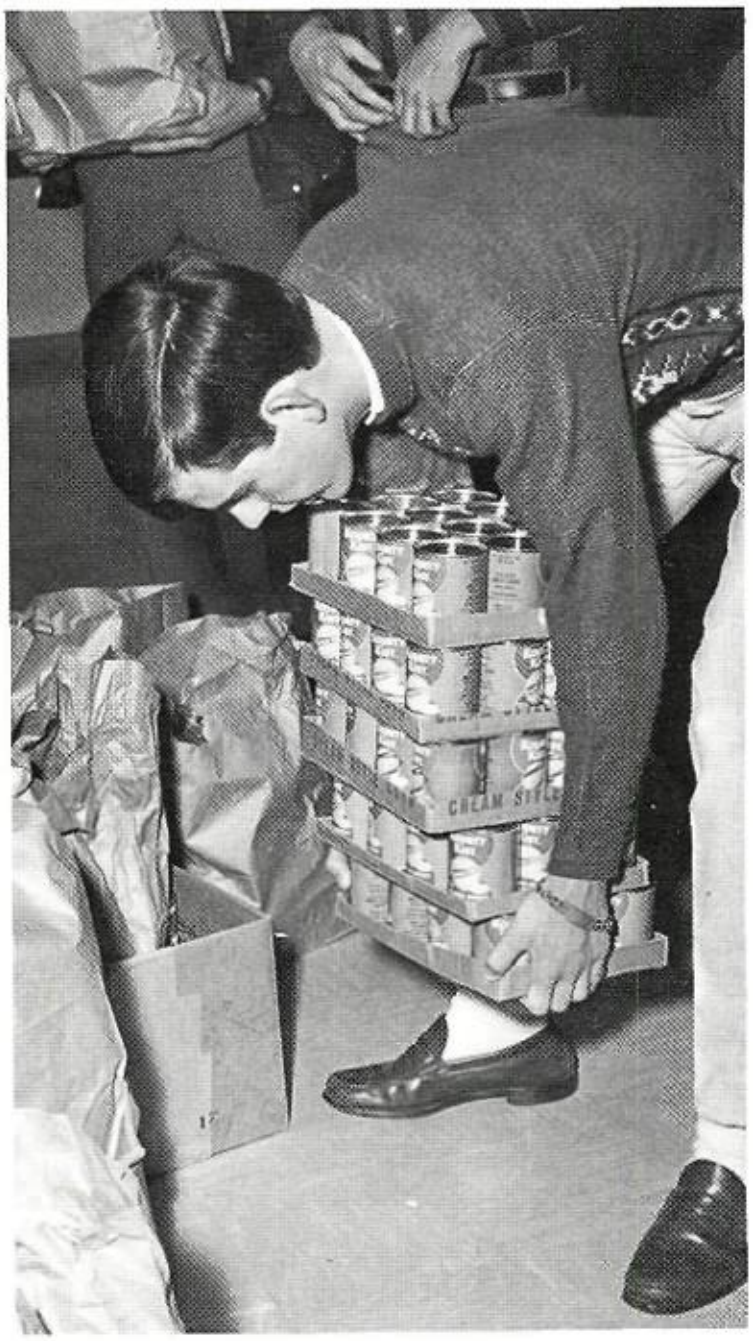
All-School Sing time rolled around again. It was fun for all, and all for fun. Competition was stiff, but the Drama Club triumphed by capturing first place. The FTA "Hobo Camp" came in second with the Girls Volleyball Team placing third. Other organizations competing were the Shorthand Club, FHA, Student Council, Steer Band, and Music Theory Club.

This bunch of bums from the FTA think they are the kings of the road.

Jingle Bells Are Heard Around Campus

Mrs. Blick and Mrs. Irwin take a refreshment break which the homemaking girls provided.

Judy Dyer and Susan Cape decorate Mrs. Brewster's door for the door decoration contest.



Robin Hoover seems to be loaded down with canned food.

The VOE banquet is one of the many pre-Christmas parties.

The week before adjournment for the holidays was filled to the brim with gaiety and laughter. Doors suddenly blossomed with decorations, and there was stiff competition for the prizes in the contest. Even with at least one party each night, the spirit of giving was not buried. The Canned Food Drive netted more than ever before, and the FHA girls dressed dolls for the firemen who collected them for the needy.

Geri Corbell writhes to the sounds of the Chevelle Five.

Looks as if Veanda Griffith has discovered something.

The throbbing music proves popular with the dancers.

Miracle Worker Staged by Drama Department

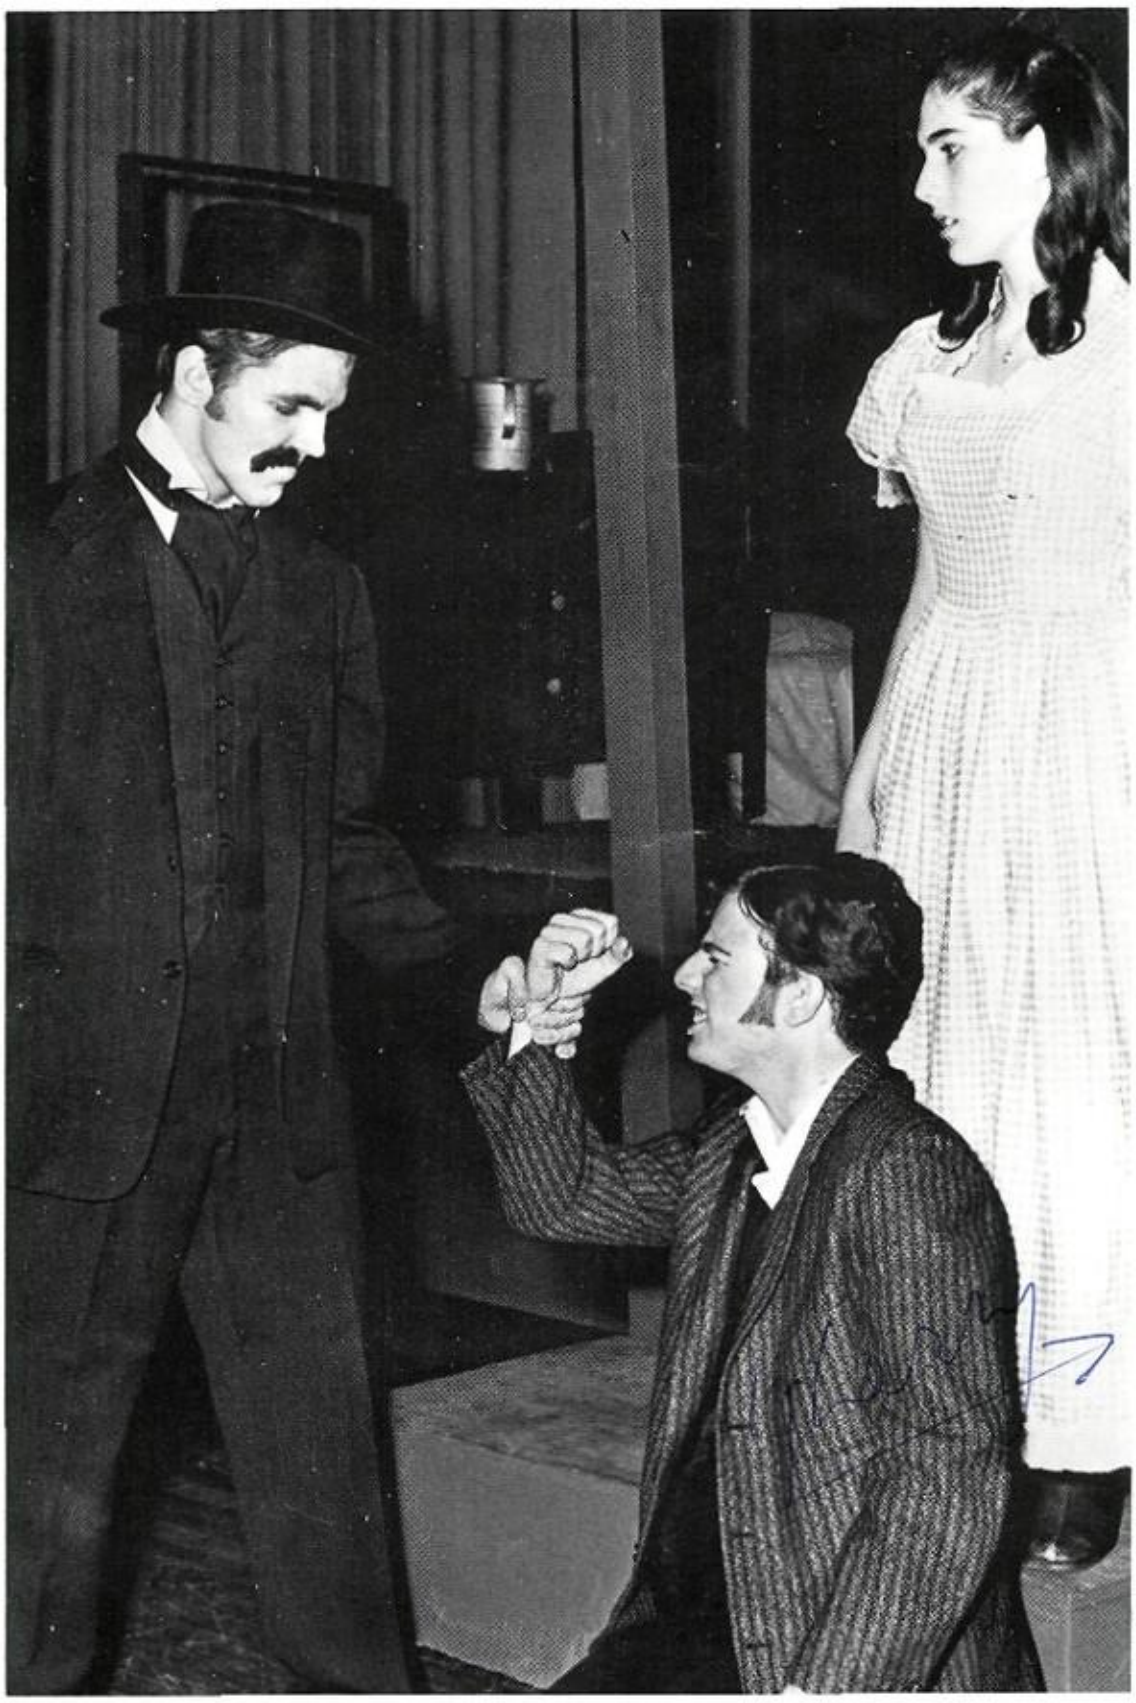
The BSHS Drama Department presented a January production of the Miracle Worker, the story of Helen Keller and her teacher, Annie Sullivan. The main cast included Janet Perry – Annie Sullivan; Joy Stevens – Helen Keller; Carl Van Vleet – Capt. Keller; Elizabeth Lipscombe – Mrs. Keller; Kerry Gunnels – James; Vernica Anderson – Vinney; Rowan Settles – a doctor; and Norma Backs – Aunt Ev.

Many others were involved in the play and were backed up by a large production staff.

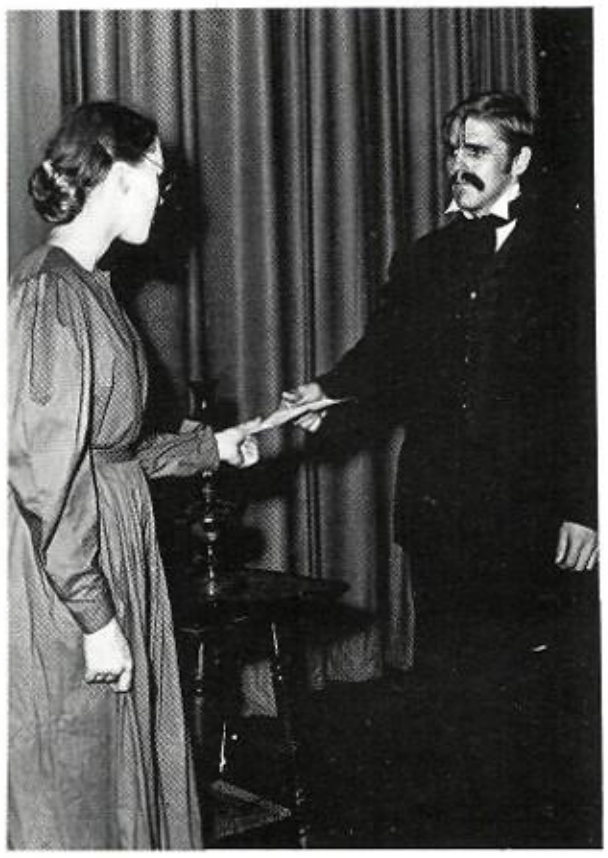
The entire play was directed by Mr. Dan Shockey and student director, Sharon Swim.

Director Dan Shockey seems well pleased with the performance.

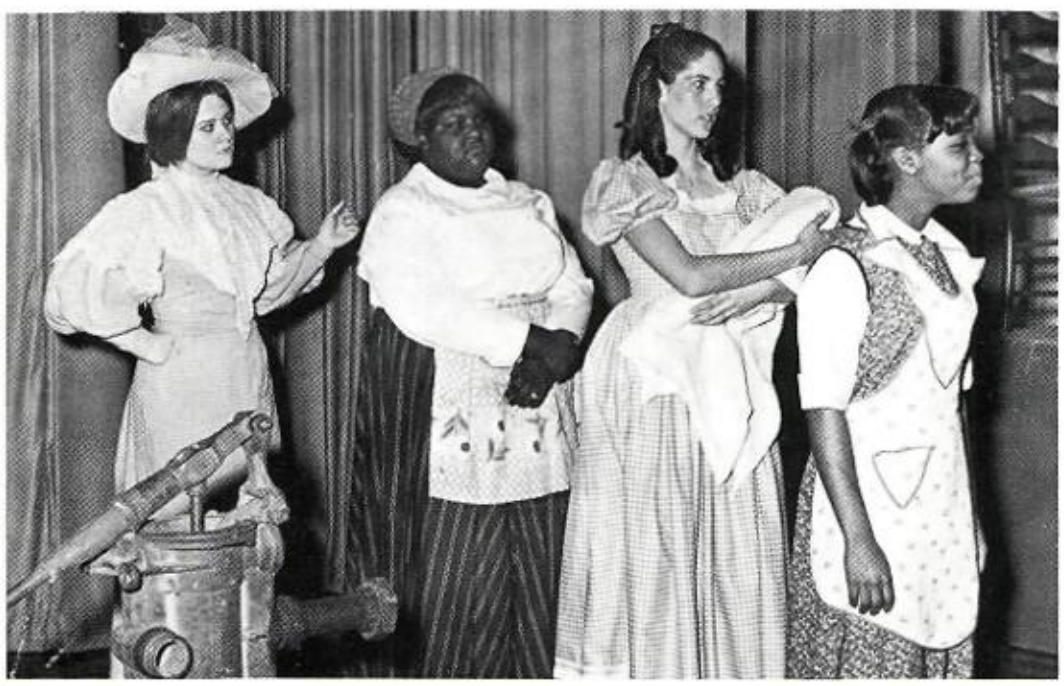
Miss Annie Sullivan and Helen Keller induce tears during an emotional scene.



Carl Van Vleet, Kerry Gunnels, and Elizabeth Lipscombe will confess that the Generation Gap is not new.



Mealtime is a frustration for Helen and a struggle for Annie.



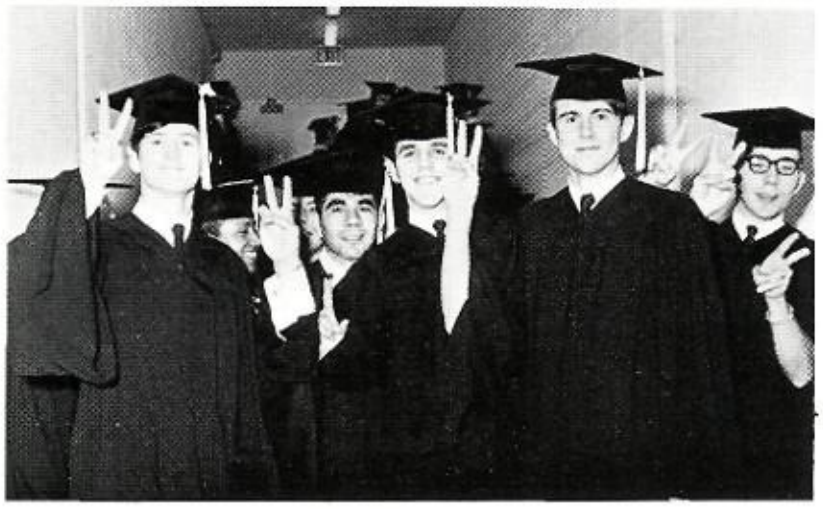
Aunt Ev, Vinney, Mrs. Keller, and Martha await a first glance of Annie Sullivan.

Graduates Pursue Meaning In Life

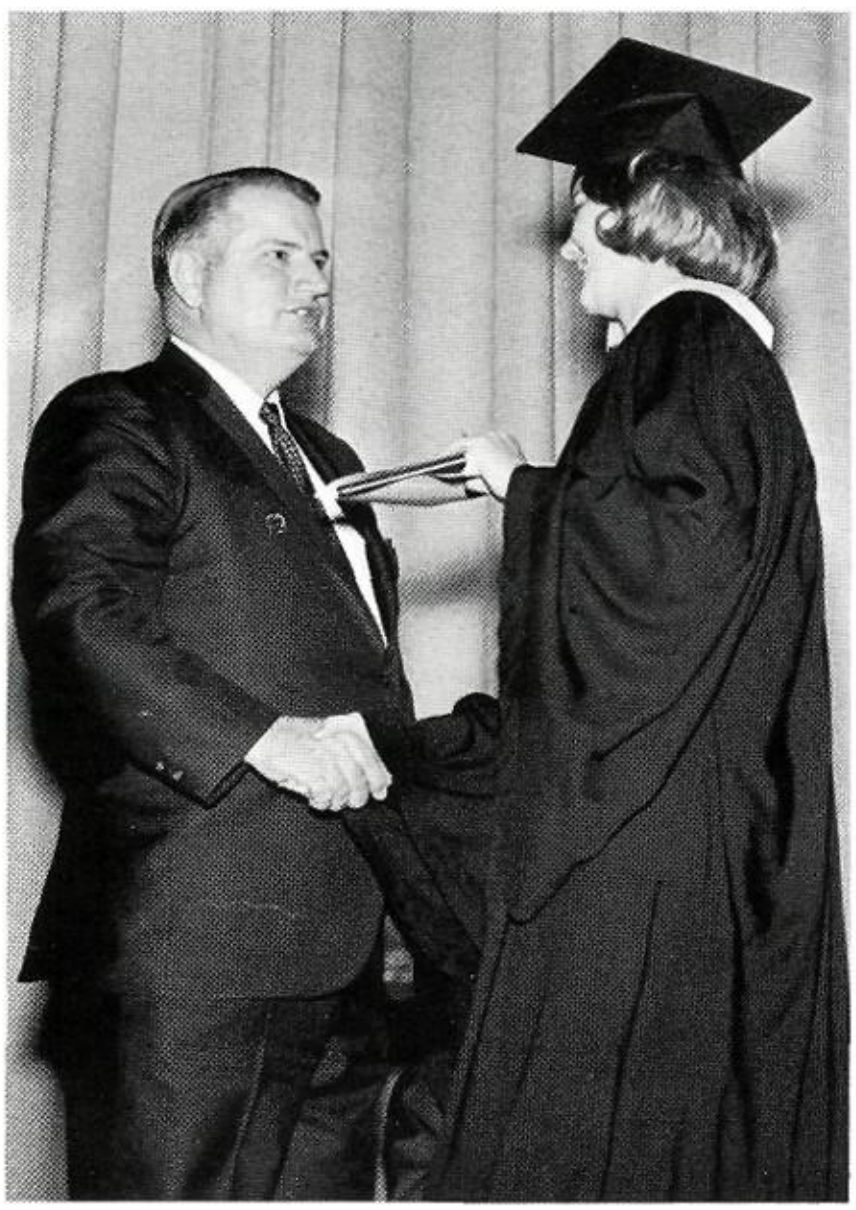
A diploma seemed a light load to everyone but the graduate. To him it was heavy with expectations – expectations from teachers, parents, neighbors, and friends. Immediately on acceptance of the diploma, he supposedly became dependable, wise, thoughtful, and understanding. The diploma was not to be taken lightly; it was a heavy piece of luggage.

Superintendent Sam Anderson was the speaker for the occasion. He urged the fifty-one mid-term graduates to "find some meaning in their lives." After being presented for certification by John Smith, principal, the graduates were introduced by Assistant Principal Harold Bentley. Presenting the diplomas were members of the school board.

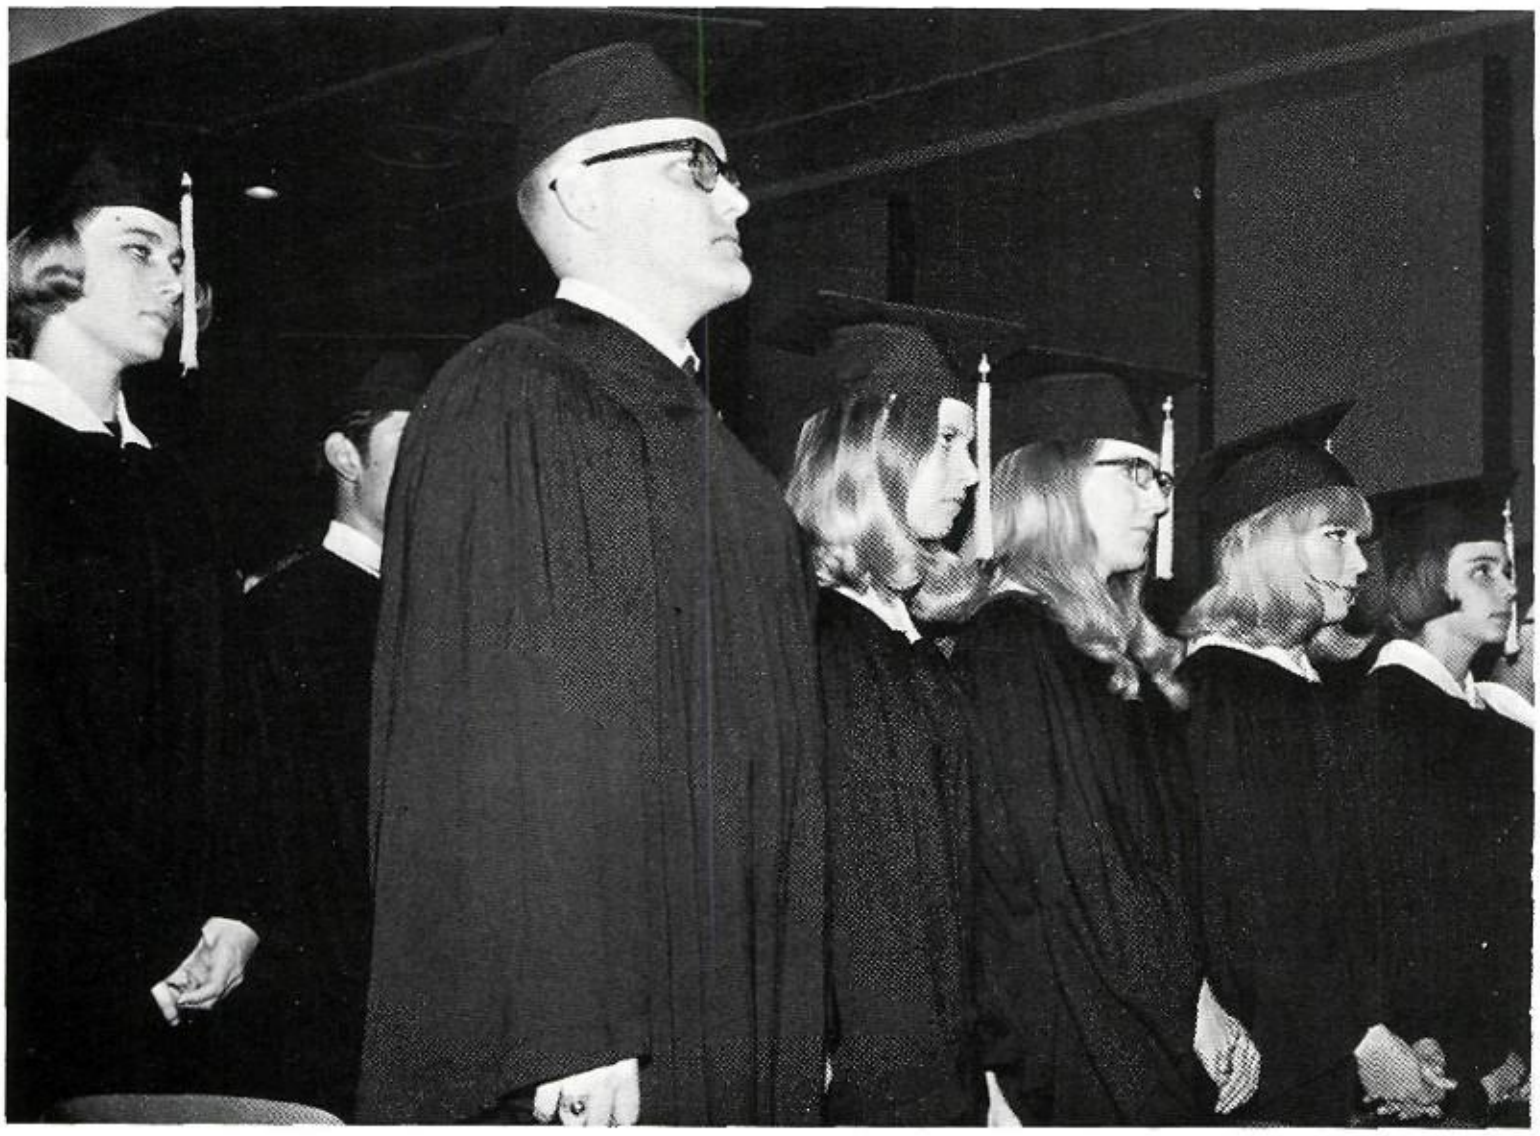
Sherry Powell happily accepts Mr. Anderson's congratulations.



These graduates finally fell victorious over school.

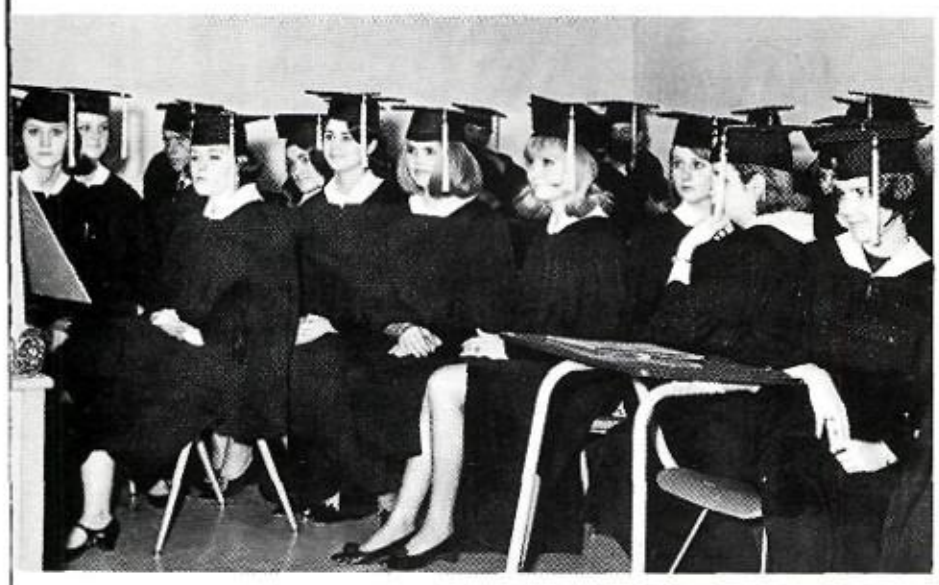


Cindy Gressett pauses for a word with Mr. Smith.

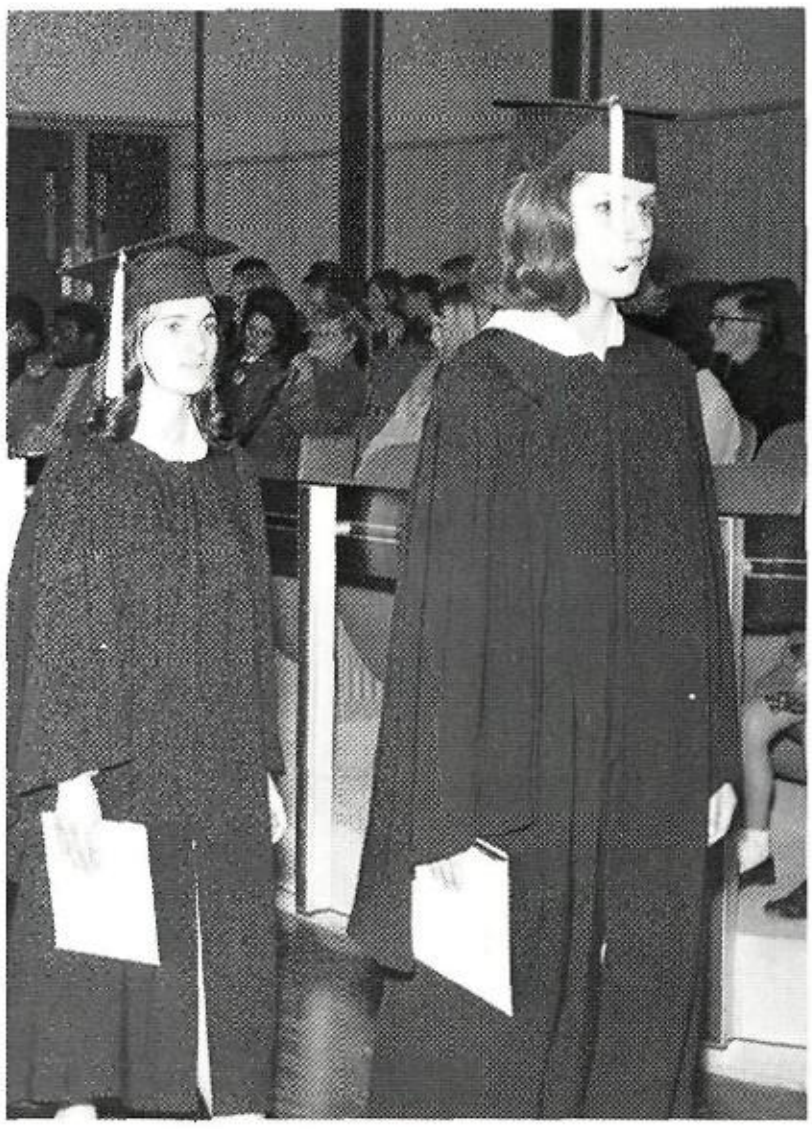


The graduates solemnly await certification.

This bevy of excited girls discuss future plans.



The tension mounts as the time draws near.



Gail Coates and Gwen Clark file out of the auditorium.

Variety Is The Spice Of Life

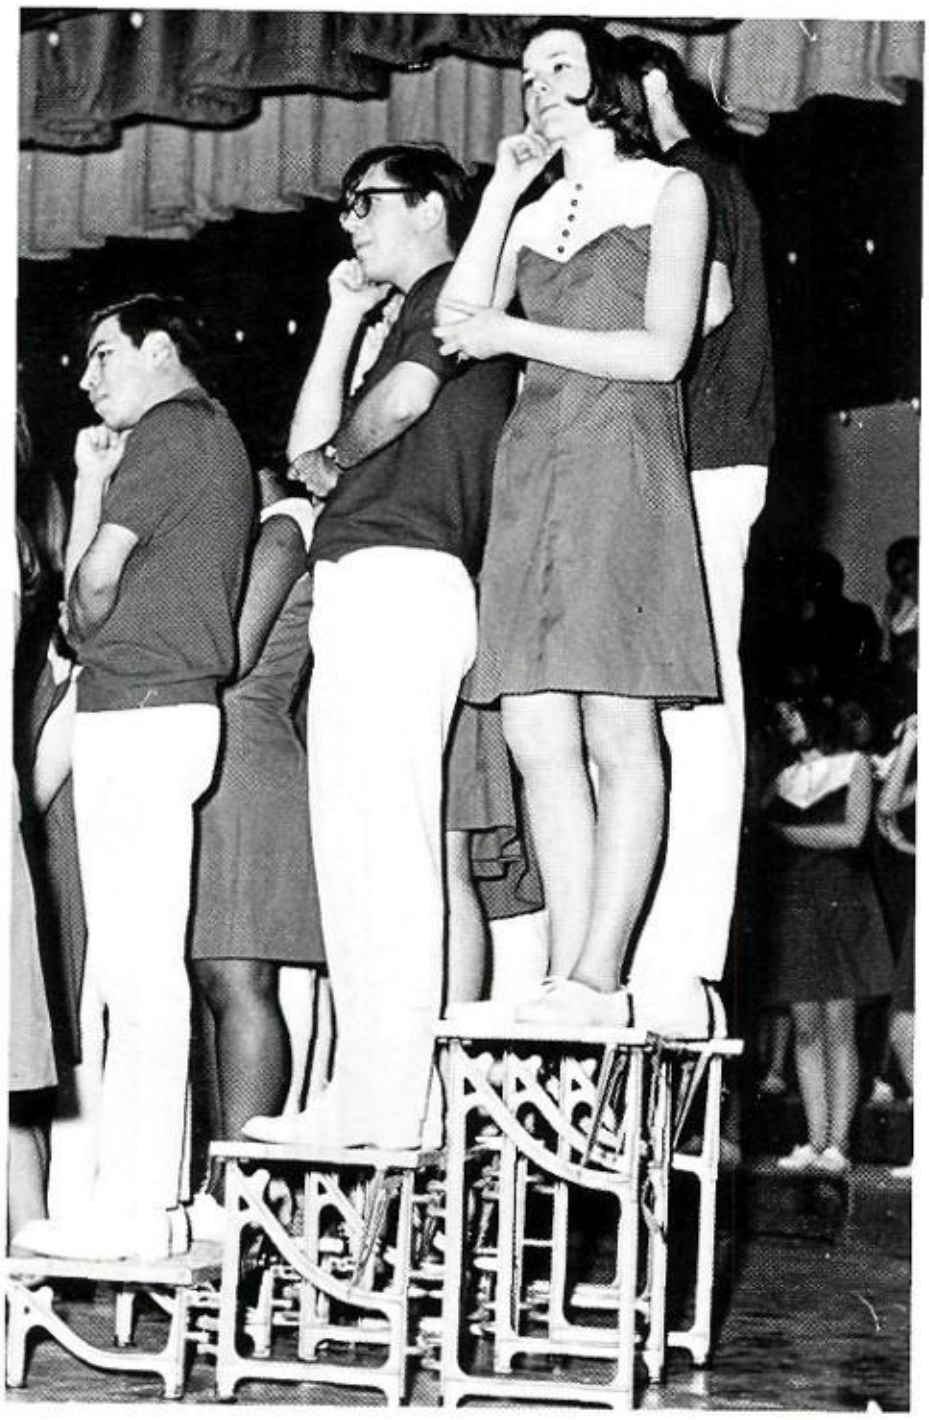
It was the band's turn to show their versatility. Singing, dancing, and general carousing all figured into Campus Revue '69. Many of the band members were featured in the show introduced by Douglas Burnett, Carolyn Newman, and Gerald Smith. A salute to Walt Disney with costumes and a sequence to Up With People were spotlighted. Serving with Mr. Bill Bradley and Mr. Don Turner as special director was Mr. Todd Lane of Wichita Falls. Also included in the production personnel were other teachers, parents, and the 200 band members.

Lynda Lloyd and Dee Elrod present a fanfare for cereal.

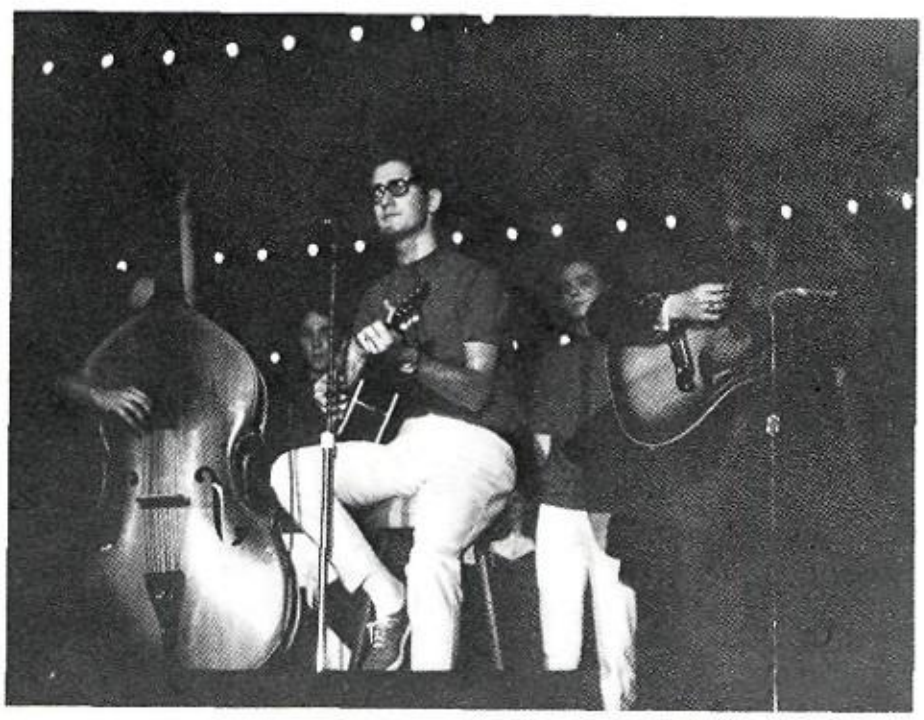
Twinkle (Izell) Johnson belts out "Hello Dolly."

These members of the "Up With People" group have the beat.

Band Members Do Their Own Thing



The Steer Band sings out on "Up With People."



Local troubadour, Don Turner, vocalizes "What Color Is God's Skin."

CR '69 would not be complete without the local barbershop quartet composed of Dee Elrod, Melvin Chappell, Tommy Polk, and Rob Chapman.

That 300 pound fleshpot, Juanita Banana (Don Tyler), swings and sways to the Latin beat.

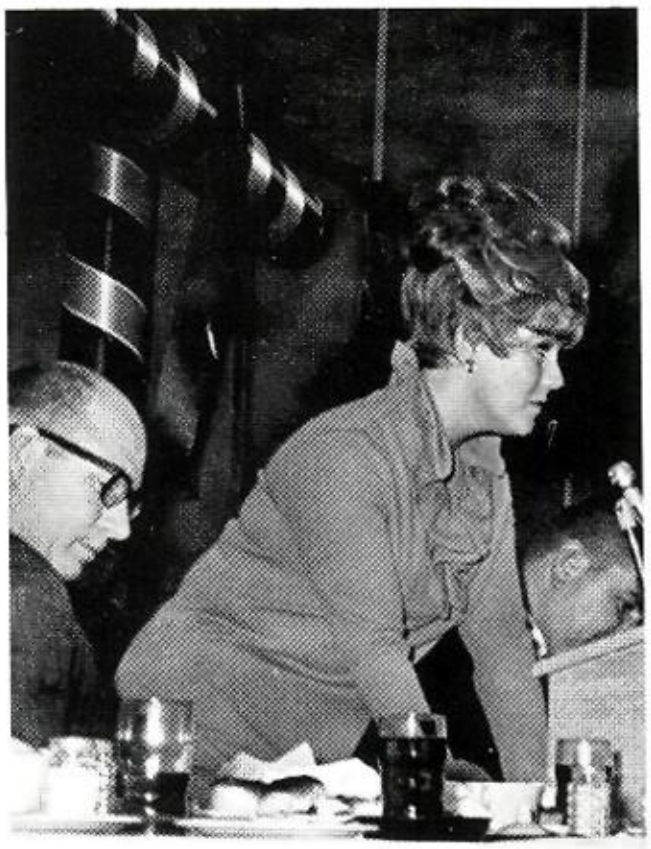
Quarterback Club Recognizes Athletes

At the annual football banquet sponsored by the Quarterback Club, Coach Gene Stallings from Texas A&M served as guest speaker, and five outstanding members of the football team were recognized. Named Back of the Year was Roy Lee Warren, and Steve Russell was awarded Lineman of the Year. Rocky Wooley was presented the Coaches' Award; the Webb Award was received by Tommy Switzer; and Meliton Arriola was honored with the Scholastic Award. Anne Talbot was named Football Sweetheart.

Gene Stallings, Texas A&M mentor, presents a challenging speech.

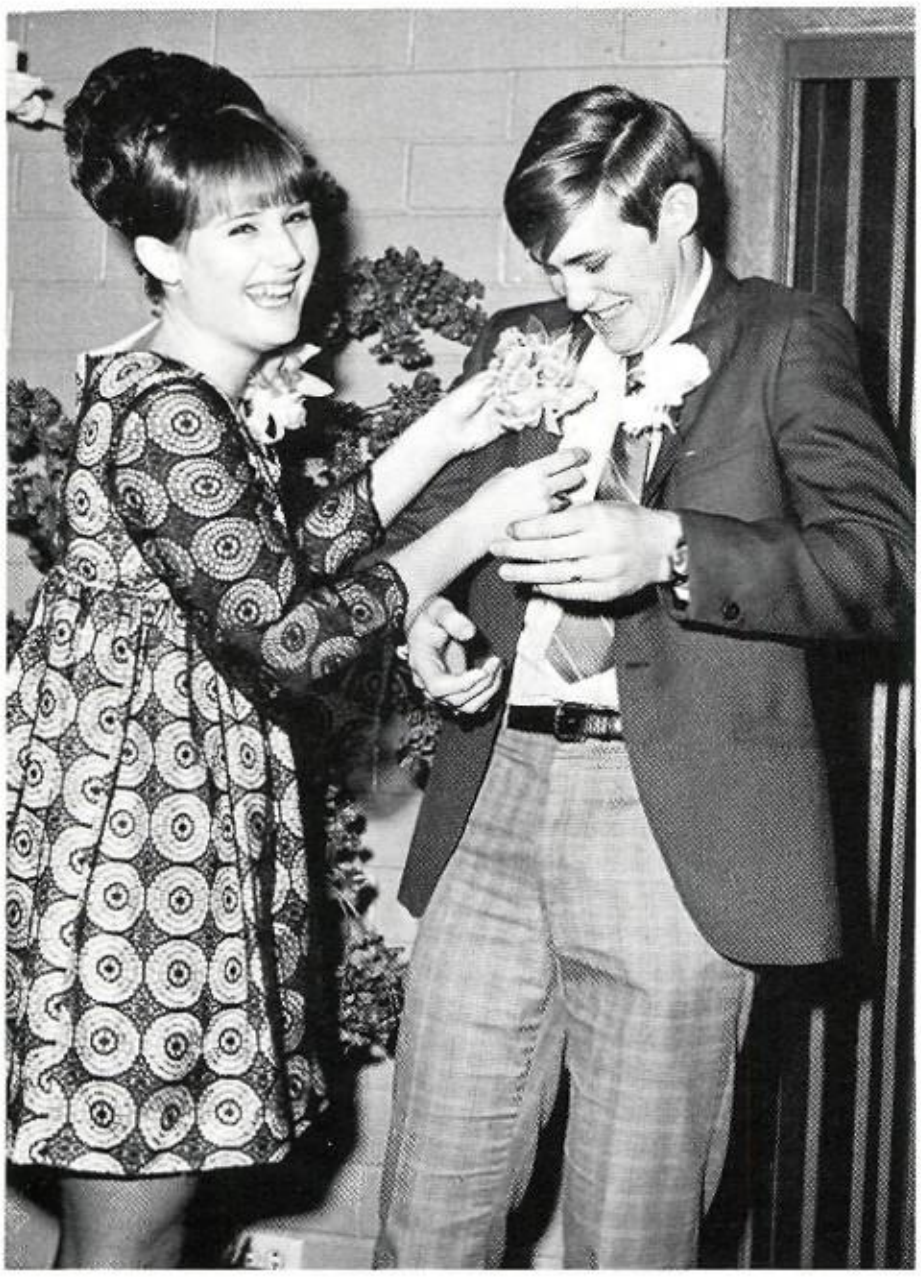
Anne Talbot happily accepts her roses

Meliton Arriola is presented a trophy for having the highest scholastic average of the team.



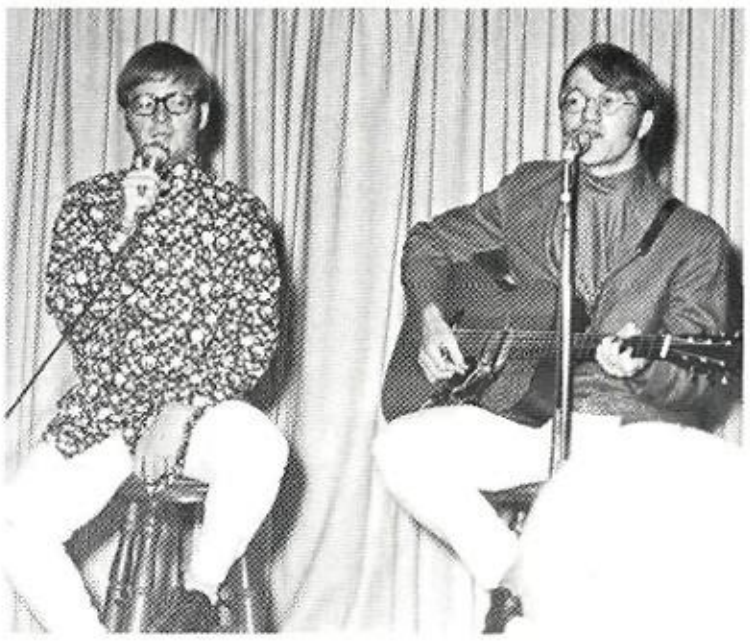
Mrs. Sandy Pugh introduces the cheerleaders.

Banquet Highlights Year For FHA



Jan Tolan tries to find more room for decorations on FHA beau, Mike Alexander.

Climaxing the year for FHA was the Sweetheart Banquet honoring Mike Alexander, FHA beau. Five members were recognized for outstanding achievement. Sherry Powell was presented with the Betty Crocker Award, and Debbie Coffee was the recipient of the Crisco Award. Gayle Coleman was named Homemaker of the Year by her fellow club members. Outstanding FHA representatives, Cathey Carlile and Vicki Annen were presented with charms.



Danny Johnson and Cary Banks provide entertainment.

Conversation does not lag as Lynn Willis and Susan Cape go through the line.

Debbie Coffee accepts the Crisco Award from Mrs. Fern Alexander.

Herman Evans and Gary Hughes start to make a long run deep into Odessa High's territory.

The BSHS Junior Varsity was one of the "go" teams this year. They racked up nine wins with only one loss which resulted in a tie for the "little district" championship with Abilene Cooper. The Abilene Junior Varsity was the only team that was able to overcome the J.V.'s during the 1968 season. Their win was definitely a close one. The Junior Varsity lost by only three points.

The BSHS Varsity coaches worked with the Junior Varsity to produce a combination which was hard to beat.

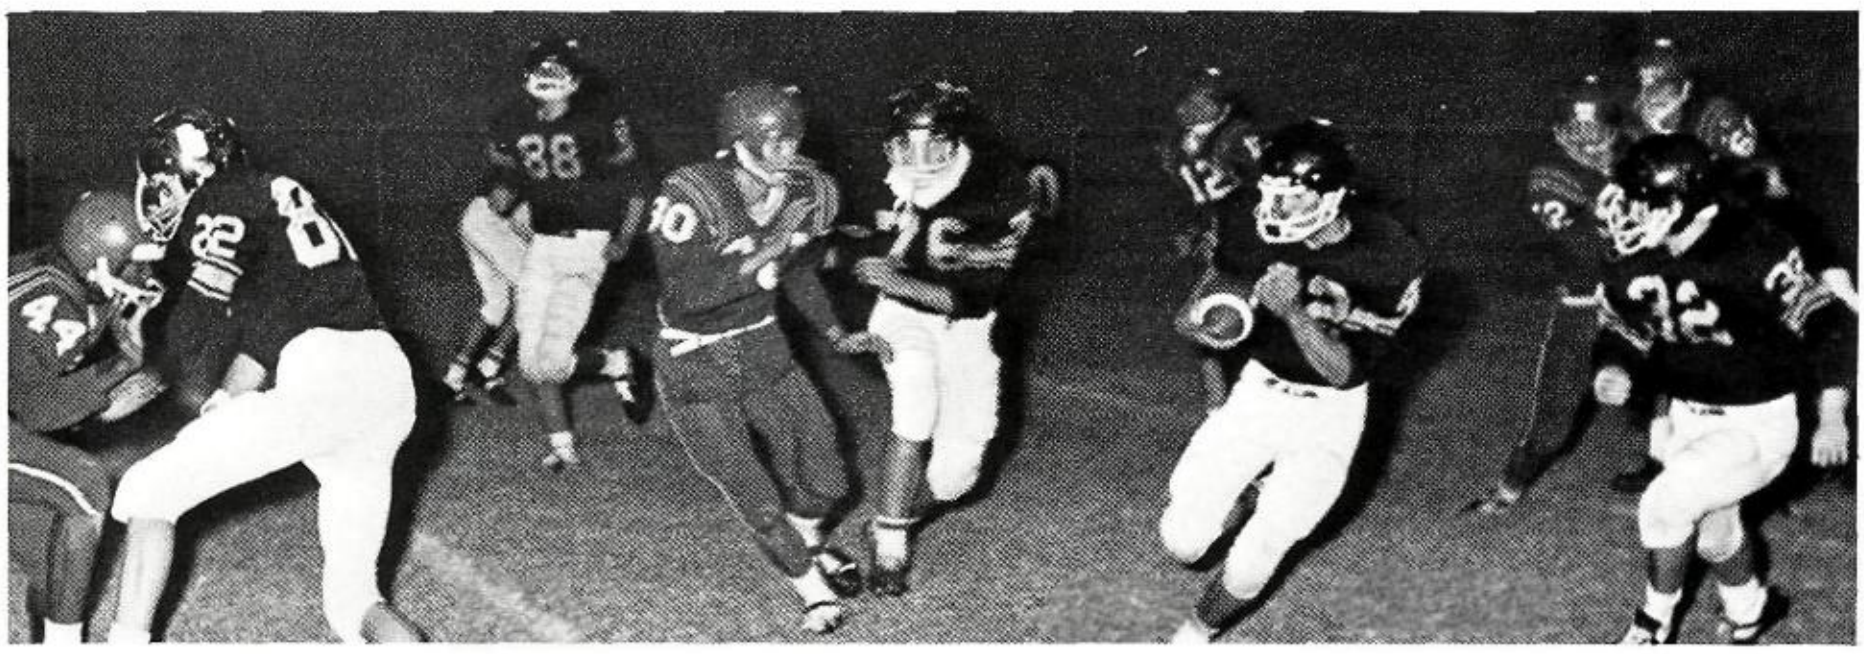
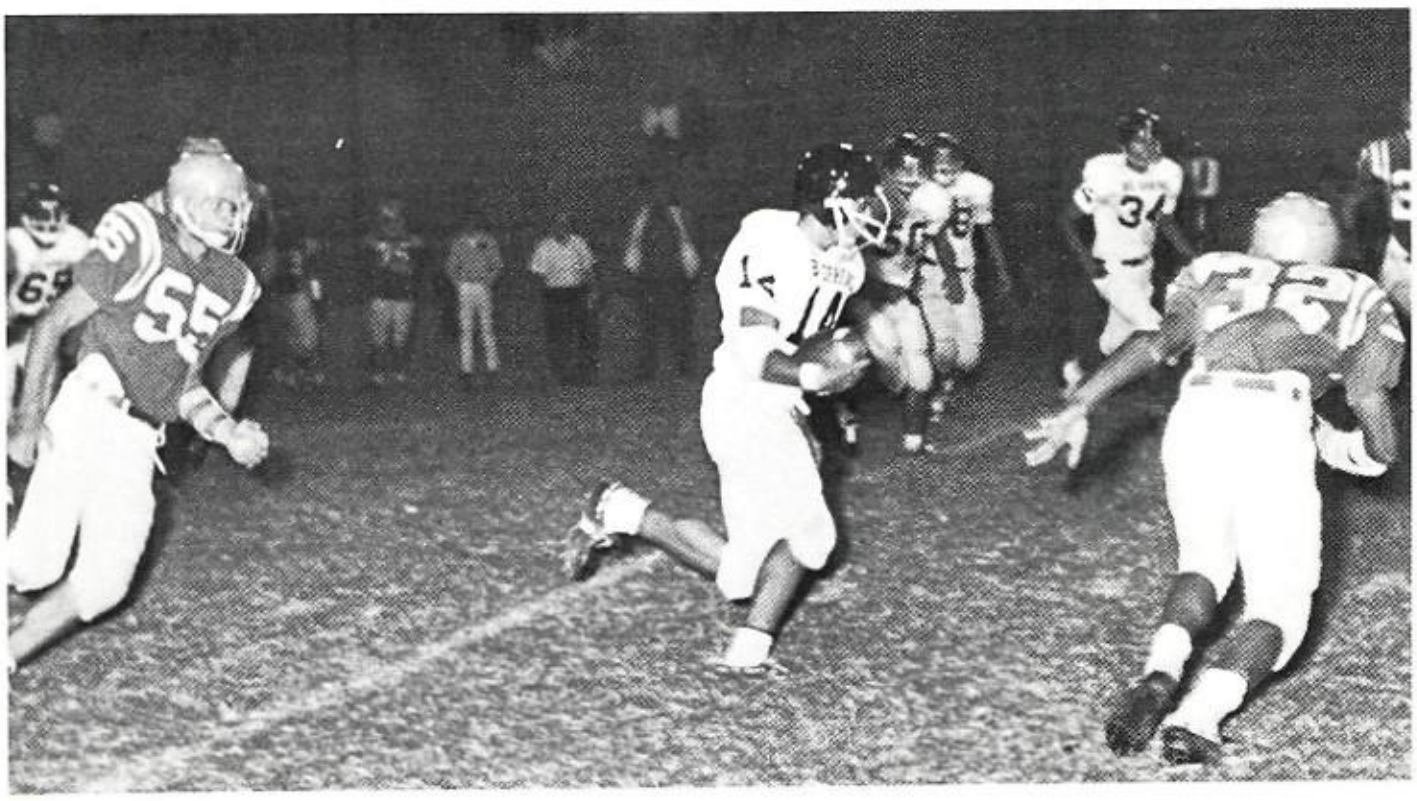
COACH GARLAND BRAUN



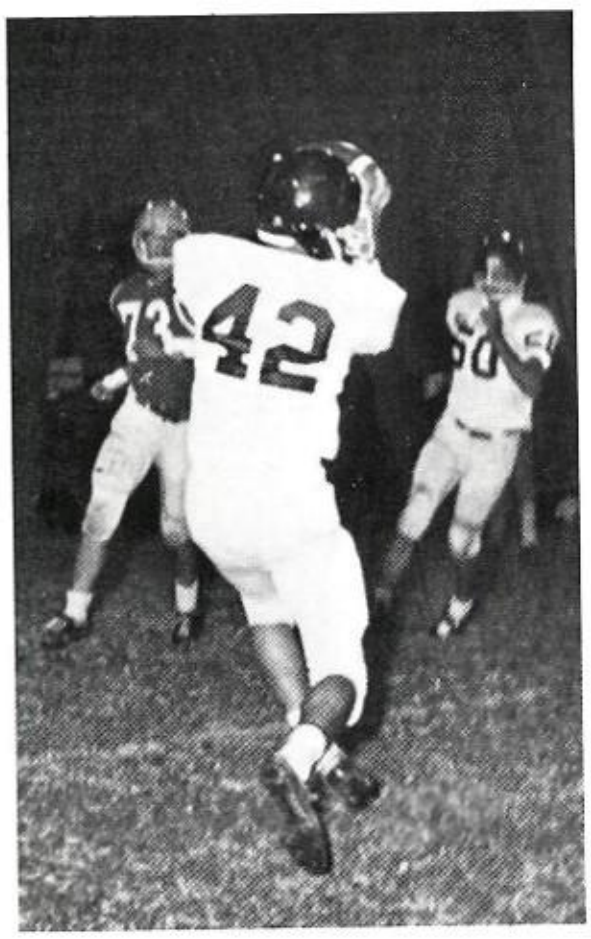
John Weeks and Guy Bell provide fine blocks for the ball carrier during the Colorado City game.

The Big Spring High School Sophomore team proved itself to be a tough athletic competitor during the 1968 football season. Every team that met the "Sophs" on the field went down in defeat except the Monahan's Junior Varsity which won by only a slight margin. Credit should be given to Coaches Braun and Higgins for producing such a fine football team this year.

Good blocking paves the way for Philip Ferguson's drive.



Larry Vasquez carries the ball against San Angelo for extra yardage.



Philip Ferguson completes a pass for the Sophomores.

Billy Franklin clears the way for Ernest Zubiate's arive.

Fourth row, L. to R.: Robert Phillips (manager), Joe Pesina, Manuel Rodriguez, Sidney Rau, Terry Hodnet, David Carter, Felix Rubio, Randy Sanders, Carl Knapp, Coach Bob Presley.

The Toros started the season with ties against the Brahmas and the Travis team. Two close defeats followed which slightly dampened their spirits but did not stop them. The Toros played doggedly throughout the rest of the season, copping two wins from Lamar. In their final game, the Toros proved to be successful by defeating the Brahmas by twelve points.

Their spirit and energy urge the Steers to victory –

Their continuous yelling fills every silence –

They are the Big Spring High School Cheerleaders.

These vivacious girls are the backbone of school spirit with their many signs and pep rallies, with their presence at all sports events, and their general enthusiasm.

The varsity cheerleaders, under the direction of Mrs. Sandy Pugh, spend many hours in preparation for the numerous pep rallies and games. They attended the SMU cheerleading school this past summer and received three second place ribbons and two third place ribbons.

The junior varsity and freshman cheerleaders, sponsored by Mrs. Mary Richey, also spend many hours preparing for their sports events.

Steer cheerleaders maintain the high spirit level which is traditional at BSHS.

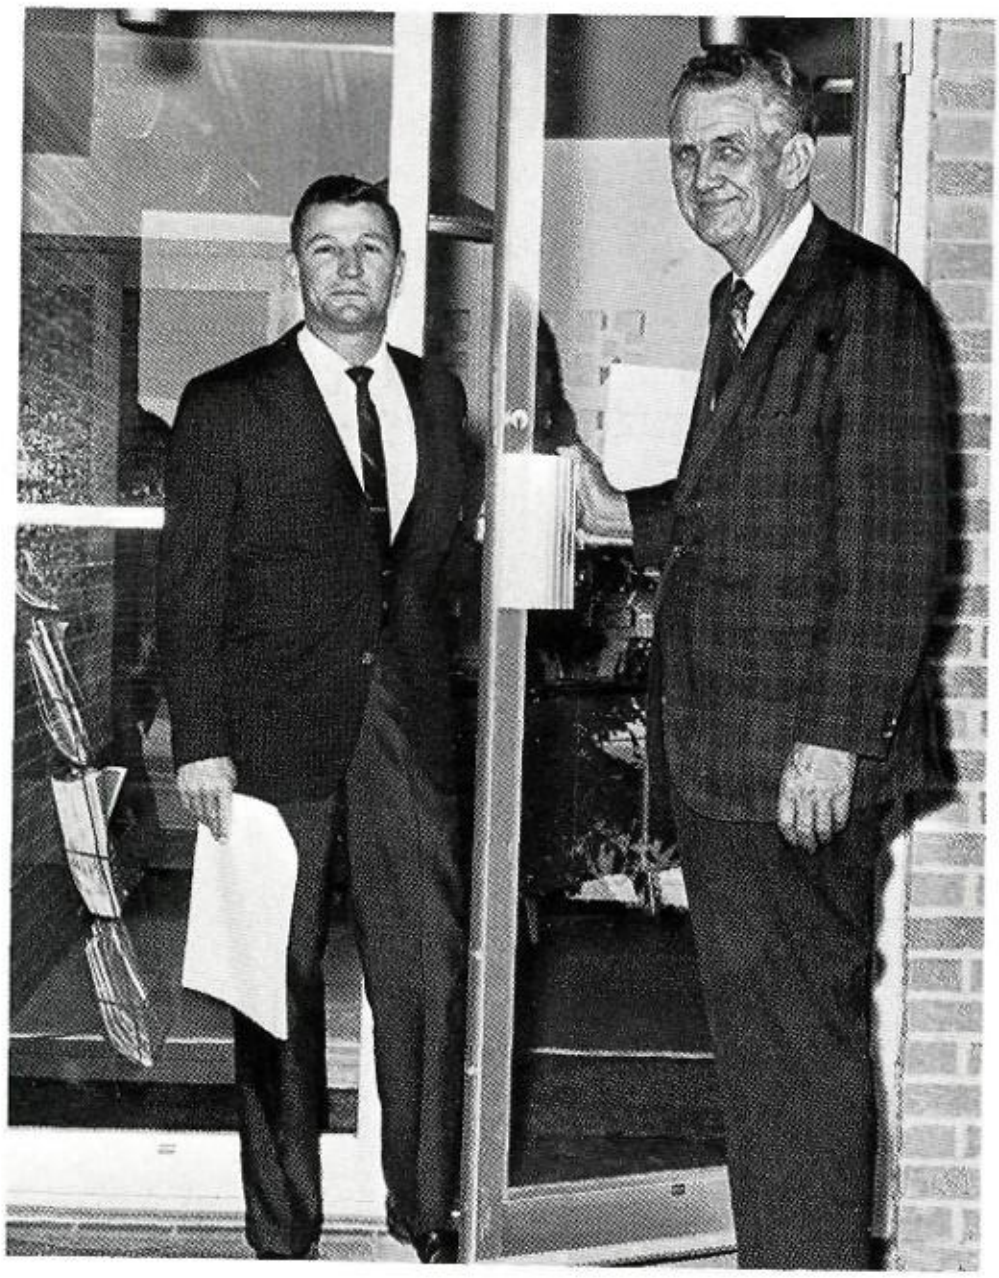
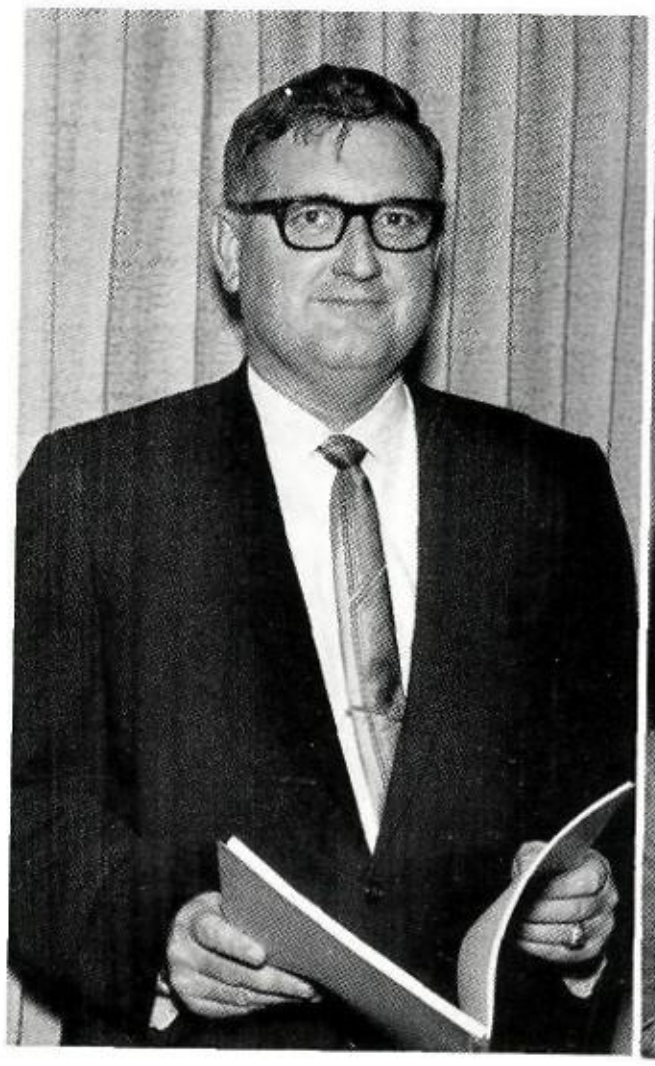
Administrators Determine Policies

Through each school year, the policies for the entire Big Spring School System are being determined by the Board of Education. The seven members of this body, led by President Joe A. Moss, meet in regular monthly sessions and have numerous called meetings. They have an endless job which requires dynamic leadership in order to keep the school system well organized and to prepare for the future years.

Superintendent Sam Anderson and his staff of assistants are burdened with the task of executing the decisions of the school board. These men work closely with the individual schools in order to coordinate their actions.

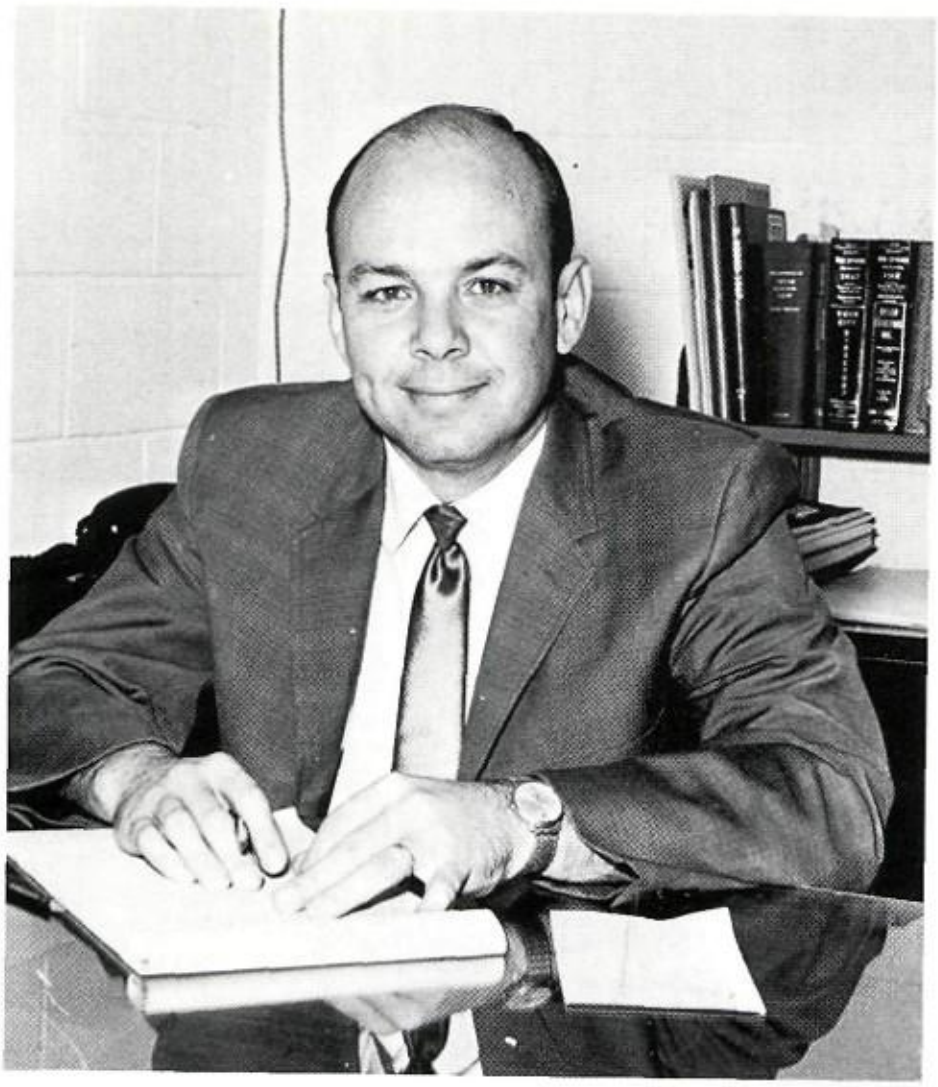


Mr. Lynn C. Hise, Assistant Superintendent of Instruction, and Superintendent Sam Anderson leave the Administration Building on the way to inspect new facilities.



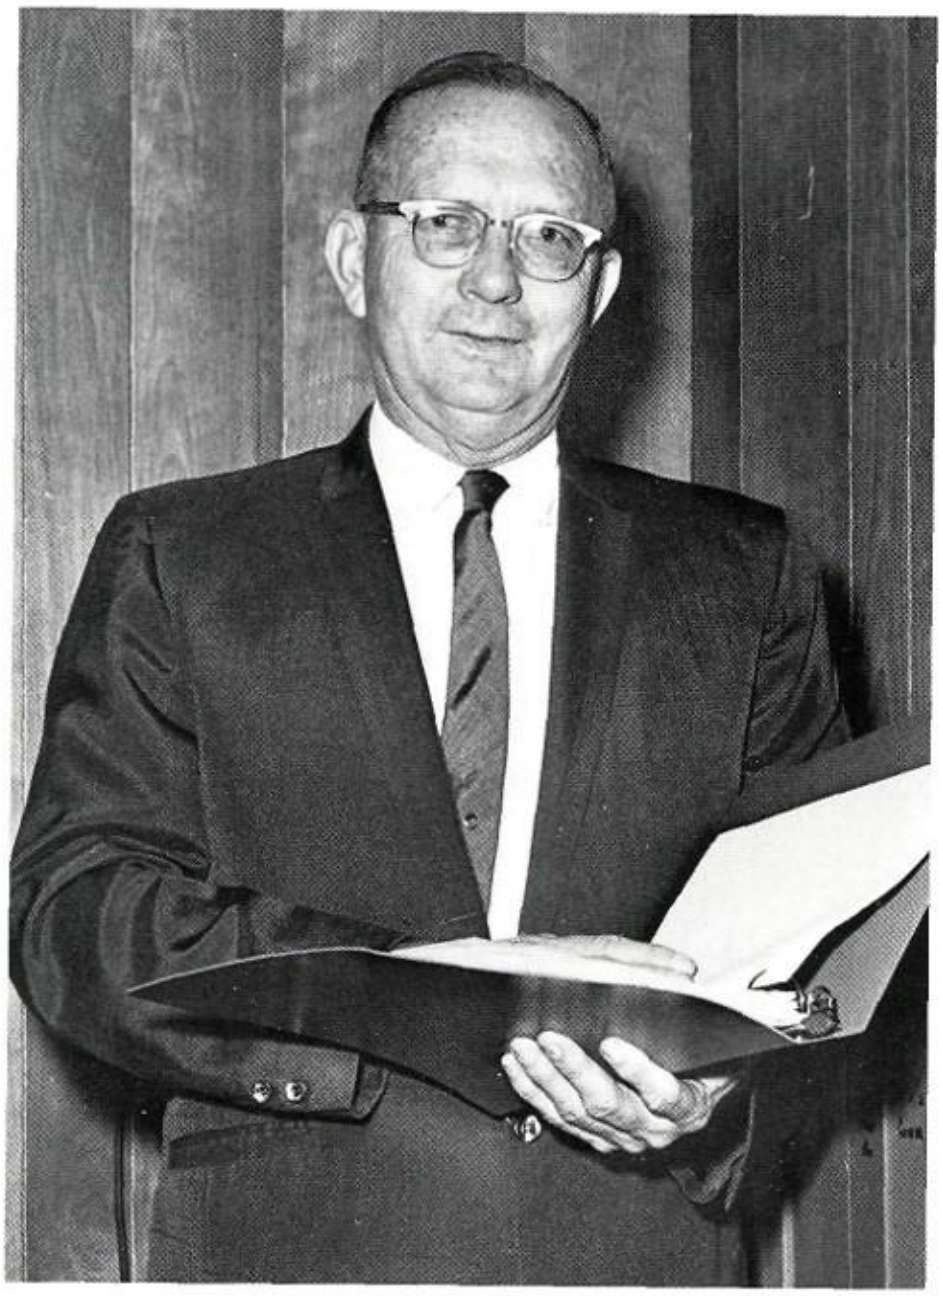
Joe A. Moss, president, looks over the agenda for the coming school board meeting.

School board members are, seated left to right, Jimmy Taylor and Jack R. Alexander; standing, Grant C. Boardman, vice-president, Jerry Currie and Roy E. Watkins; and not pictured is Mrs. R. B. G. Cowper, secretary.



Don Crockett, Assistant Superintendent of Business, keeps a careful watch on all financial matters of the Big Spring Public Schools.

Don Green, Assistant for Business Services, prepares football tickets for pre-game sales.



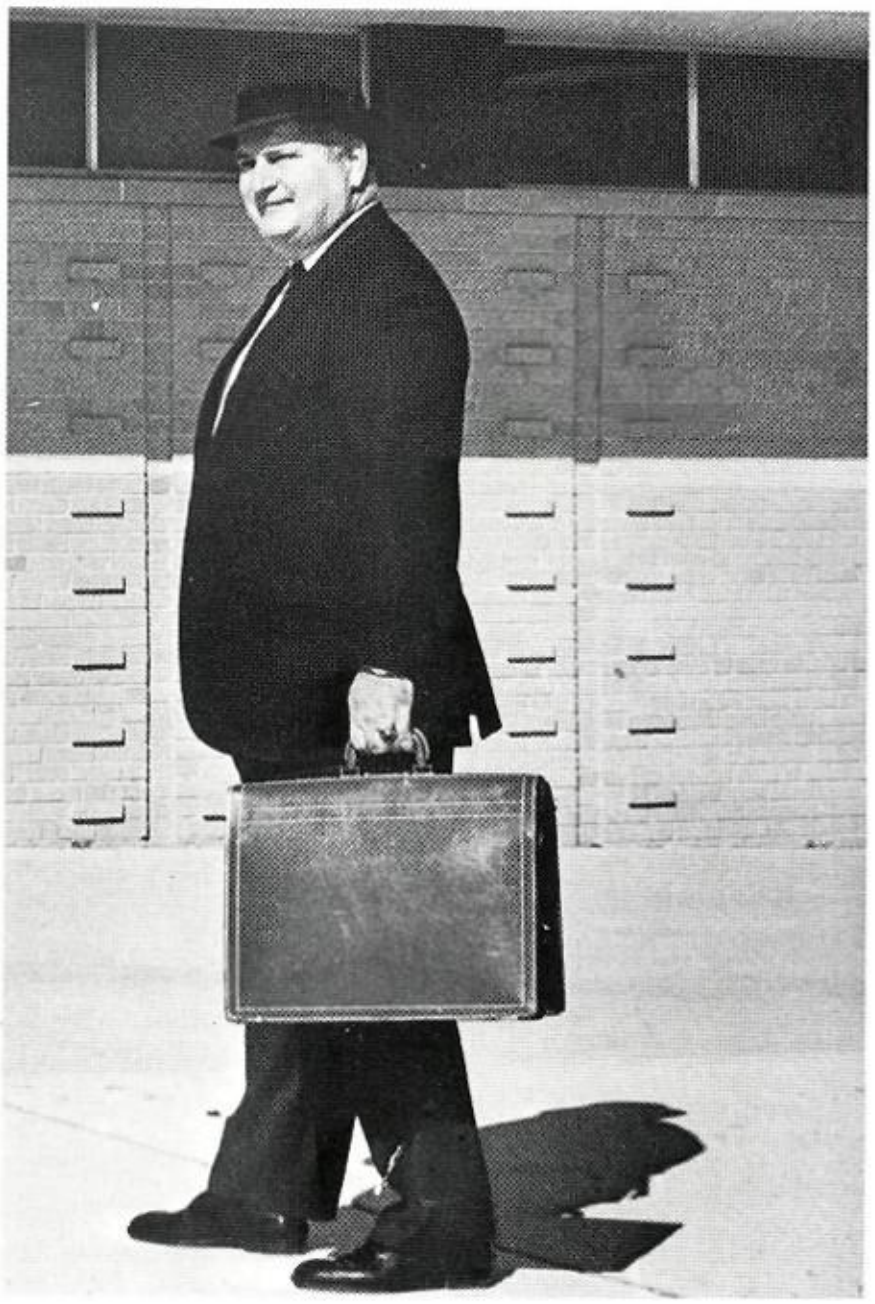
One of the duties of Noel Reed, Director of Personnel, is the directing of the city-wide school evaluation program.

Keith Swim, Administration Assistant, directs Head-Start and other federally-connected programs.

Administration Heads Evaluation Program

The school evaluation program which occurs every ten years was just one of the countless problems that faced Principal John F. Smith during the 1968-69 school year. Mr. Smith, who graduated from North Texas State University with a Bachelor of Science degree and later a Master of Science, directs some 166 personnel members and is in charge of approximately 2103 students.

Mr. Ray Pope, Dean of Students, writes out a memo for a student conference.



Principal John F. Smith leaves BSHS after a long work day.

Assistant Principals Harold Bentley and John Talmadge are familiar figures around BSHS. Mr. Bentley received his Bachelor of Science degree from Howard Payne College and his Master of Education degree from Sul Ross State College. He directs the operation and maintenance of the school facilities. Mr. Talmadge graduated from Southwest Texas State College with Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees. He regulates all student and personnel activities.

Dean of Students Mr. Ray Pope graduated from Southern Methodist University with Bachelor of Science and Master of Education degrees. He is responsible for student conduct.

Assistant Principals Harold Bentley and John Talmadge confer over daily problems.

Coach Spike Dykes spends countless hours organizing all athletic activities while Mrs. Gene Harrington is engaged in keeping all financial and scholastic records. The counselors, Mrs. Janice Rosson and Mr. Morris Molpus, help students to face and adjust to everyday problems.

Teachers Relate English To Present Day

The English Department, headed by Mrs. Olen Puckett, stresses development of literature, grammar usage, composition, and mechanics. The department consists of English at the four grade levels. Freshmen English, a required course for high school graduation, has 613 students enrolled. Also required for graduation are sophomore English with 518 students enrolled and junior English with 450 students enrolled. Senior English, not required but a course recommended for college bound students, has a total of 214 enrolled. It is the responsibility of the English teachers to refine the English skills known by their students and to instruct them in new tools of learning. Included in each English course is a short period of training in the library.

The Foreign Language Department, headed by Miss Colleen Slaughter, offers the courses of Latin, Spanish, and French to the students of BSHS. Latin has a total of 163 students enrolled, while French has a total of 67 students enrolled. Spanish, the most popular language on the campus, has a total of 377 students enrolled. Spanish and French students are aided in learning through audio-visual aids and are taught through some conversational usage of the language. Latin is taught purely from the textbook, and students learn grammar constructions.

This department includes Physical Science, with 674 students enrolled; Biology, with 310 students enrolled; Chemistry, with an enrollment of 121; Physics, with 42 students enrolled; and Advanced Science, with an enrollment of 24. In these classes, students receive a wealth of information that will help them in scientific matters of the future. Students are required to take one year of any science in order to graduate from high school.

Mathematics Stresses Exactness

The Math Department, headed by G. T. Guthrie, teaches students the basic fundamentals of math, algebra, and the higher forms of algebra. Related math has an enrollment of 763, while the two years of algebra have a total enrollment of 720. Geometry has 109 students enrolled, and trigonometry has 41 enrolled. The newest math course, computer, has 25 students enrolled. Two years of any of the above courses are required for a high school diploma. These courses are interesting, and require a great deal of work done outside of class.

Social Studies Increase Awareness

The Social Studies Department, headed by Rodney Allison, covers the history of our world, nation, and state and relates it to present day situations in the form of government. This department includes government, with an enrollment of 179, which is a required course for graduation. Also required for graduation are American History, with 475 students enrolled, and World History, with 569 enrolled. Texas History, not a required course but an interesting course for seniors, has 58 students enrolled.

Students often find social studies boring, but the department at BSHS makes these courses some of the best at our school. The three history courses are accented with interesting films, and sometimes guest speakers to speak about the subject on which the class is studying. Government is highlighted by interesting lectures.

Homemaking Teaches Skills

The Homemaking Department, headed by Mrs. Fern Alexander, teaches students the basic skills of food preparation, clothing, health, care of the sick, and child care. Three years of homemaking are offered on the campus, and many girls take all three years. This year a new course falling under this department was introduced, and it was opened to boys as well as to girls – Home and Family Living. It has proved to be helpful and enjoyable to those planning on having a well managed home.

Classes Develop Appreciation Of Fine Arts

The Fine Arts Department enables students to develop abilities in the fields of art and music education. Art, taught at three year levels, has a total enrollment of 318. Choir, which includes our school's performing bodies, has 183 enrolled. Band, which includes both BSHS's marching and symphonic performing bands, has 232 enrolled. Art teaches the fundamental skills of drawing and painting. In choir, students learn the essentials of voice training and voice improvement, while band teaches instrument principles.

Journalism, Speech Enrich Curriculum

The Journalism Department, headed by Erma Steward, consists of journalism at two levels. In first year journalism, with an enrollment of 61, students learn the basic fundamentals of newspaper and magazine editing, some instruction in photography, and sell advertisements for the school yearbook and newspaper. In second year journalism, with an enrollment of 20, students put the basic fundamentals into practice in laboratory work. They are in charge of editing the school yearbook and newspaper.

The Speech Department, headed by Dan Shockey, has the two divisions of speech and drama. In speech, students learn the fundamentals of speech by oral communication, develop abilities in public speaking, and study voice improvement. In drama, students develop acting skills, gain an appreciation of drama literature, and learn techniques of theatrical production.

Occupational Classes Meet Specific Needs

The Occupational Training Department, headed by Mr. C. W. Tanner, provides for the students who prefer working toward developing a skill. This is a total program in itself which leads to a high school graduation. The students are expected to meet all high school graduation requirements, but the total program is more individualized to meet their needs. Courses offered under this department include general mechanics, American History, English, government, general business, and home and community service occupations.

Physical Education Stresses Fitness

Physical Education is a required course in which students participate in conditioning exercises and sports such as softball, tennis, basketball, volleyball, and touch football. The classes engage in activities that will keep them physically fit and prove to be entertaining while doing so. The tennis team, placed under the physical education department, is coached by Frank Pulattie. The team consists of both boys and girls who compete in singles and doubles divisions at tournaments throughout the area. Many sizeable trophies have been added to the trophy case of BSHS by the tennis players. The volleyball teams, coached by Miss Susie Lynch and Mrs. Lynn Carr, participate in district competition and tournaments in March and April. The freshmen volleyball girls, coached by Miss Nancy Deason, increase their knowledge of skills for future use.

Special Staff Performs Duties

BSHS has a variety of people to fit the various needs of such a large school. Nellie Mathis, school nurse, keeps the students feeling well, while Dorothy Smith, the homebound teacher, instructs students who are unable to attend school. Mr. Ray Lawlis, cafeteria supervisor, has the tremendous task of planning menus for all the local public schools. Mr. Ornon Madison takes care of the many audio visual aids used by the teachers, and Mr. Gary Carlson is the director of the newly added planetarium. Each of these people add their own special touch to the school. These people are all very important in their own way—BSHS would find it difficult to manage without any one of them.

Staff Active In All Phases Of School Life

Many people who add so much to BSHS are never recognized or given credit by the students. Among these people are the librarians, who effectively run the library, the secretaries in the various offices, the study hall teachers, and the attendance clerk. Mrs. Nila Allen and Mrs. Chris Mullins keep the main office running smoothly for our administrators, while Mrs. Evaughn Taylor helps in the operation of the Guidance Office. Mrs. Mildred Wright, the attendance clerk, keeps the records of when students are present and absent. Mrs. Freda Hoover is secretary to Mr. John Smith, the principal of BSHS. Without these people, the school could not be operated as efficiently as it is now.

Mrs. Dibrell, library clerk, Mrs. Ellis, head librarian, and Mrs. Cook, assistant librarian, make plans for the Book Fair.

Maintenance Department Plays Vital Role

The people who keep a school clean are very important to the operation. Thus, the maintenance people pictured on this page are not to be forgotten when praise is extended toward the school. The custodians and janitors work long hours, day and night, to have our school ready for each day of classes. They have the responsibility of cleaning each of the classrooms in the school, the rest rooms, and the offices. This is tedious work, but work which must be done, and these people do a fine job.

Class Of '72 Learns To Adjust

Steer pep rallies bring out the school spirit in everyone at Big Spring High.

It was a year of beginning. Freshmen started their high school career in confusion, but soon they found that a proud heritage awaited them. They adjusted to new problems that confronted them and grew more confident of their place in school activities. The largest class in school, numbering 647, learned to love their beanies while yelling their hearts out at pep rallies. However, the excitement of football games, dances, and other social events soon gave way to the routine of classes. Achievement tests came and went as the Freshman Class slowly matured. Truly, 1969 was a year of beginning.

Class Of '71 Prepares For Future

Elizabeth Lipscombe and Steve Burnett observe CO_2.

It was a year of development. The sophomores were no longer the youngest in Big Spring High School, and they had begun to take an active part in school affairs. Insecurity gave way to a feeling of belonging as the 571 individuals that made-up the class learned to fit into the routine of school life. Julius Caesar and Silas Marner were some of the books which the sophomores struggled to finish, and they earned the necessary credit in World History which brought them one step closer to graduation. The sophomores matched wits with the grader computers on aptitude test in preparation for the future. To them, the year of 1969 will be remembered as a year of development.

Class Of '70 Looks Forward

It was a year of anticipation. The 515 members of the Junior Class found that the year that separated them from graduating seemed like a lifetime. However, the activities that are a part of a school year soon began to envelope them. Football season came, and the junior girls worked hard selling mums to their classmates. The Prom played an ever-present part in the lives of the members of the Junior Class, and a feeling of pride swept over them while ordering their senior rings. PSAT tests, American History, and The Scarlet Letter were some of the things that challenged the juniors. Hard work, activities, and a zeal for life combined to make 1969 a year of anticipation.

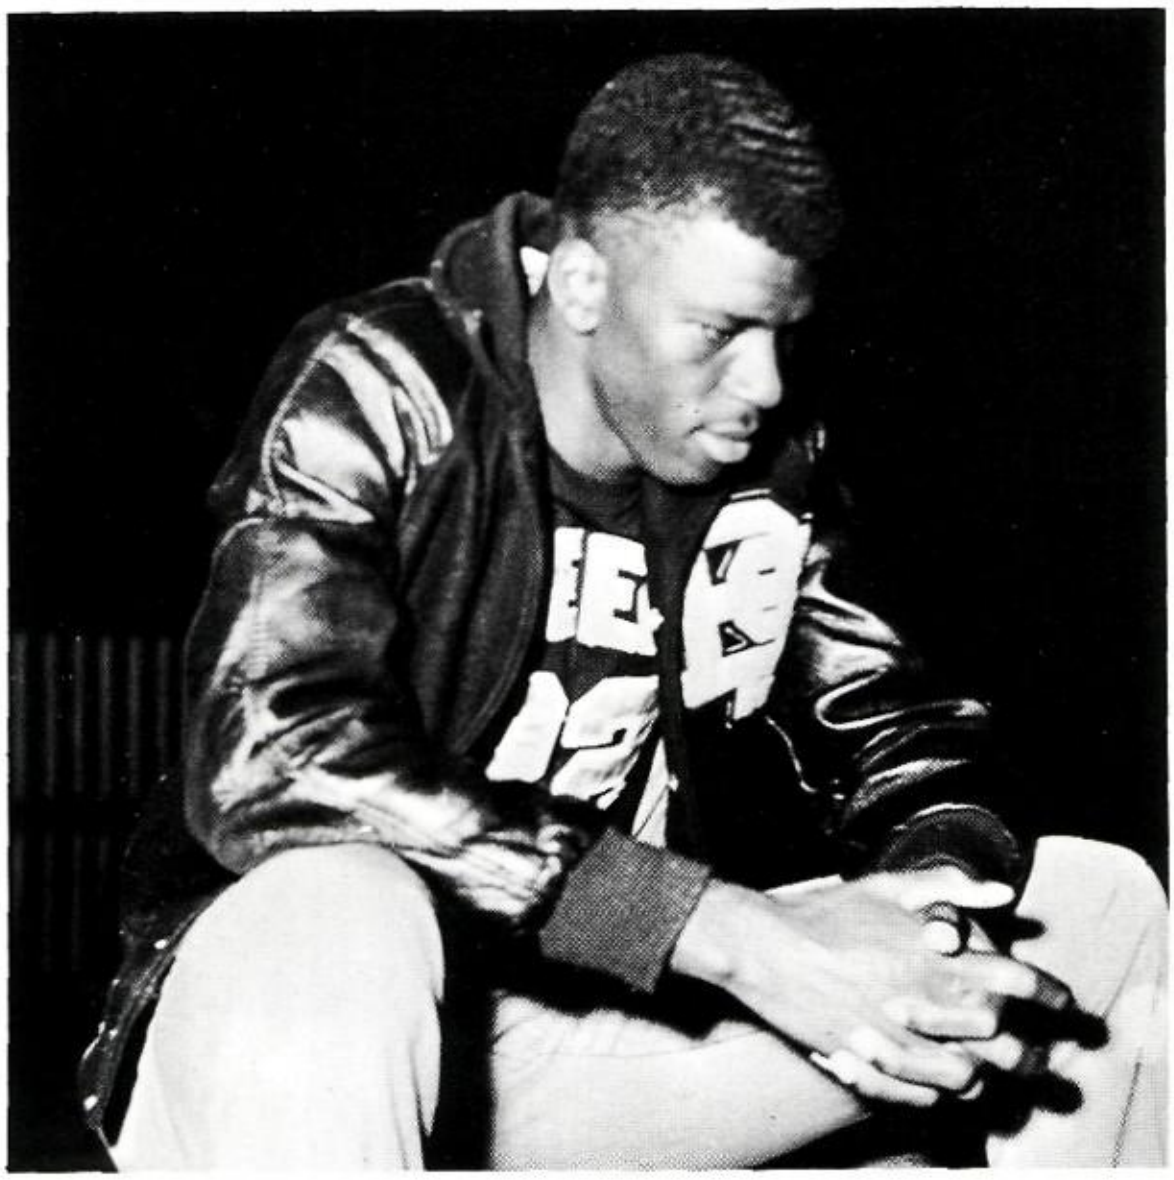
Class Of '69 Encounters Transition



Claude Tucker looks to the future with mixed emotions on leaving Big Spring High School.

It was a year of fulfillment. The time had come – they were finally seniors. The 378 members of the class worked hard to complete their final year in high school. They read Beowulf and Macbeth, struggled through government, and spent weeks dreading SAT and ACT tests. Anxious hours were spent waiting for college application acceptances. They were always late and often absent, but they continued to fan the flame of school spirit. Ahead of them lay the Prom, baccalaureate, the Senior Ring Dance, and graduation. They left only a few golden memories and long-remembered friends. Let it be said that 1969 was an end and a beginning, a year of parting and a year of discovery. Truly, it was a year of fulfillment.

What's so great about graduating? The future.

The future holds exciting and challenging opportunities. There will be many opportunities to contribute to technological development, and to help solve area and community problems in a way that will contribute to real community progress. The people of Texas Electric Service Company, as citizens of many cities and towns, are involved and committed to partnership with the communities served in building for a better future.

Joy, sorrow, success, utter failure – emotions that combine to constitute life . . .

Awareness, innocence, involvement, apathy – a kaleidoscope of ideas, events, and actions . . .

Conflict, turmoil, hatred, war, tension, rebellion, and peace –
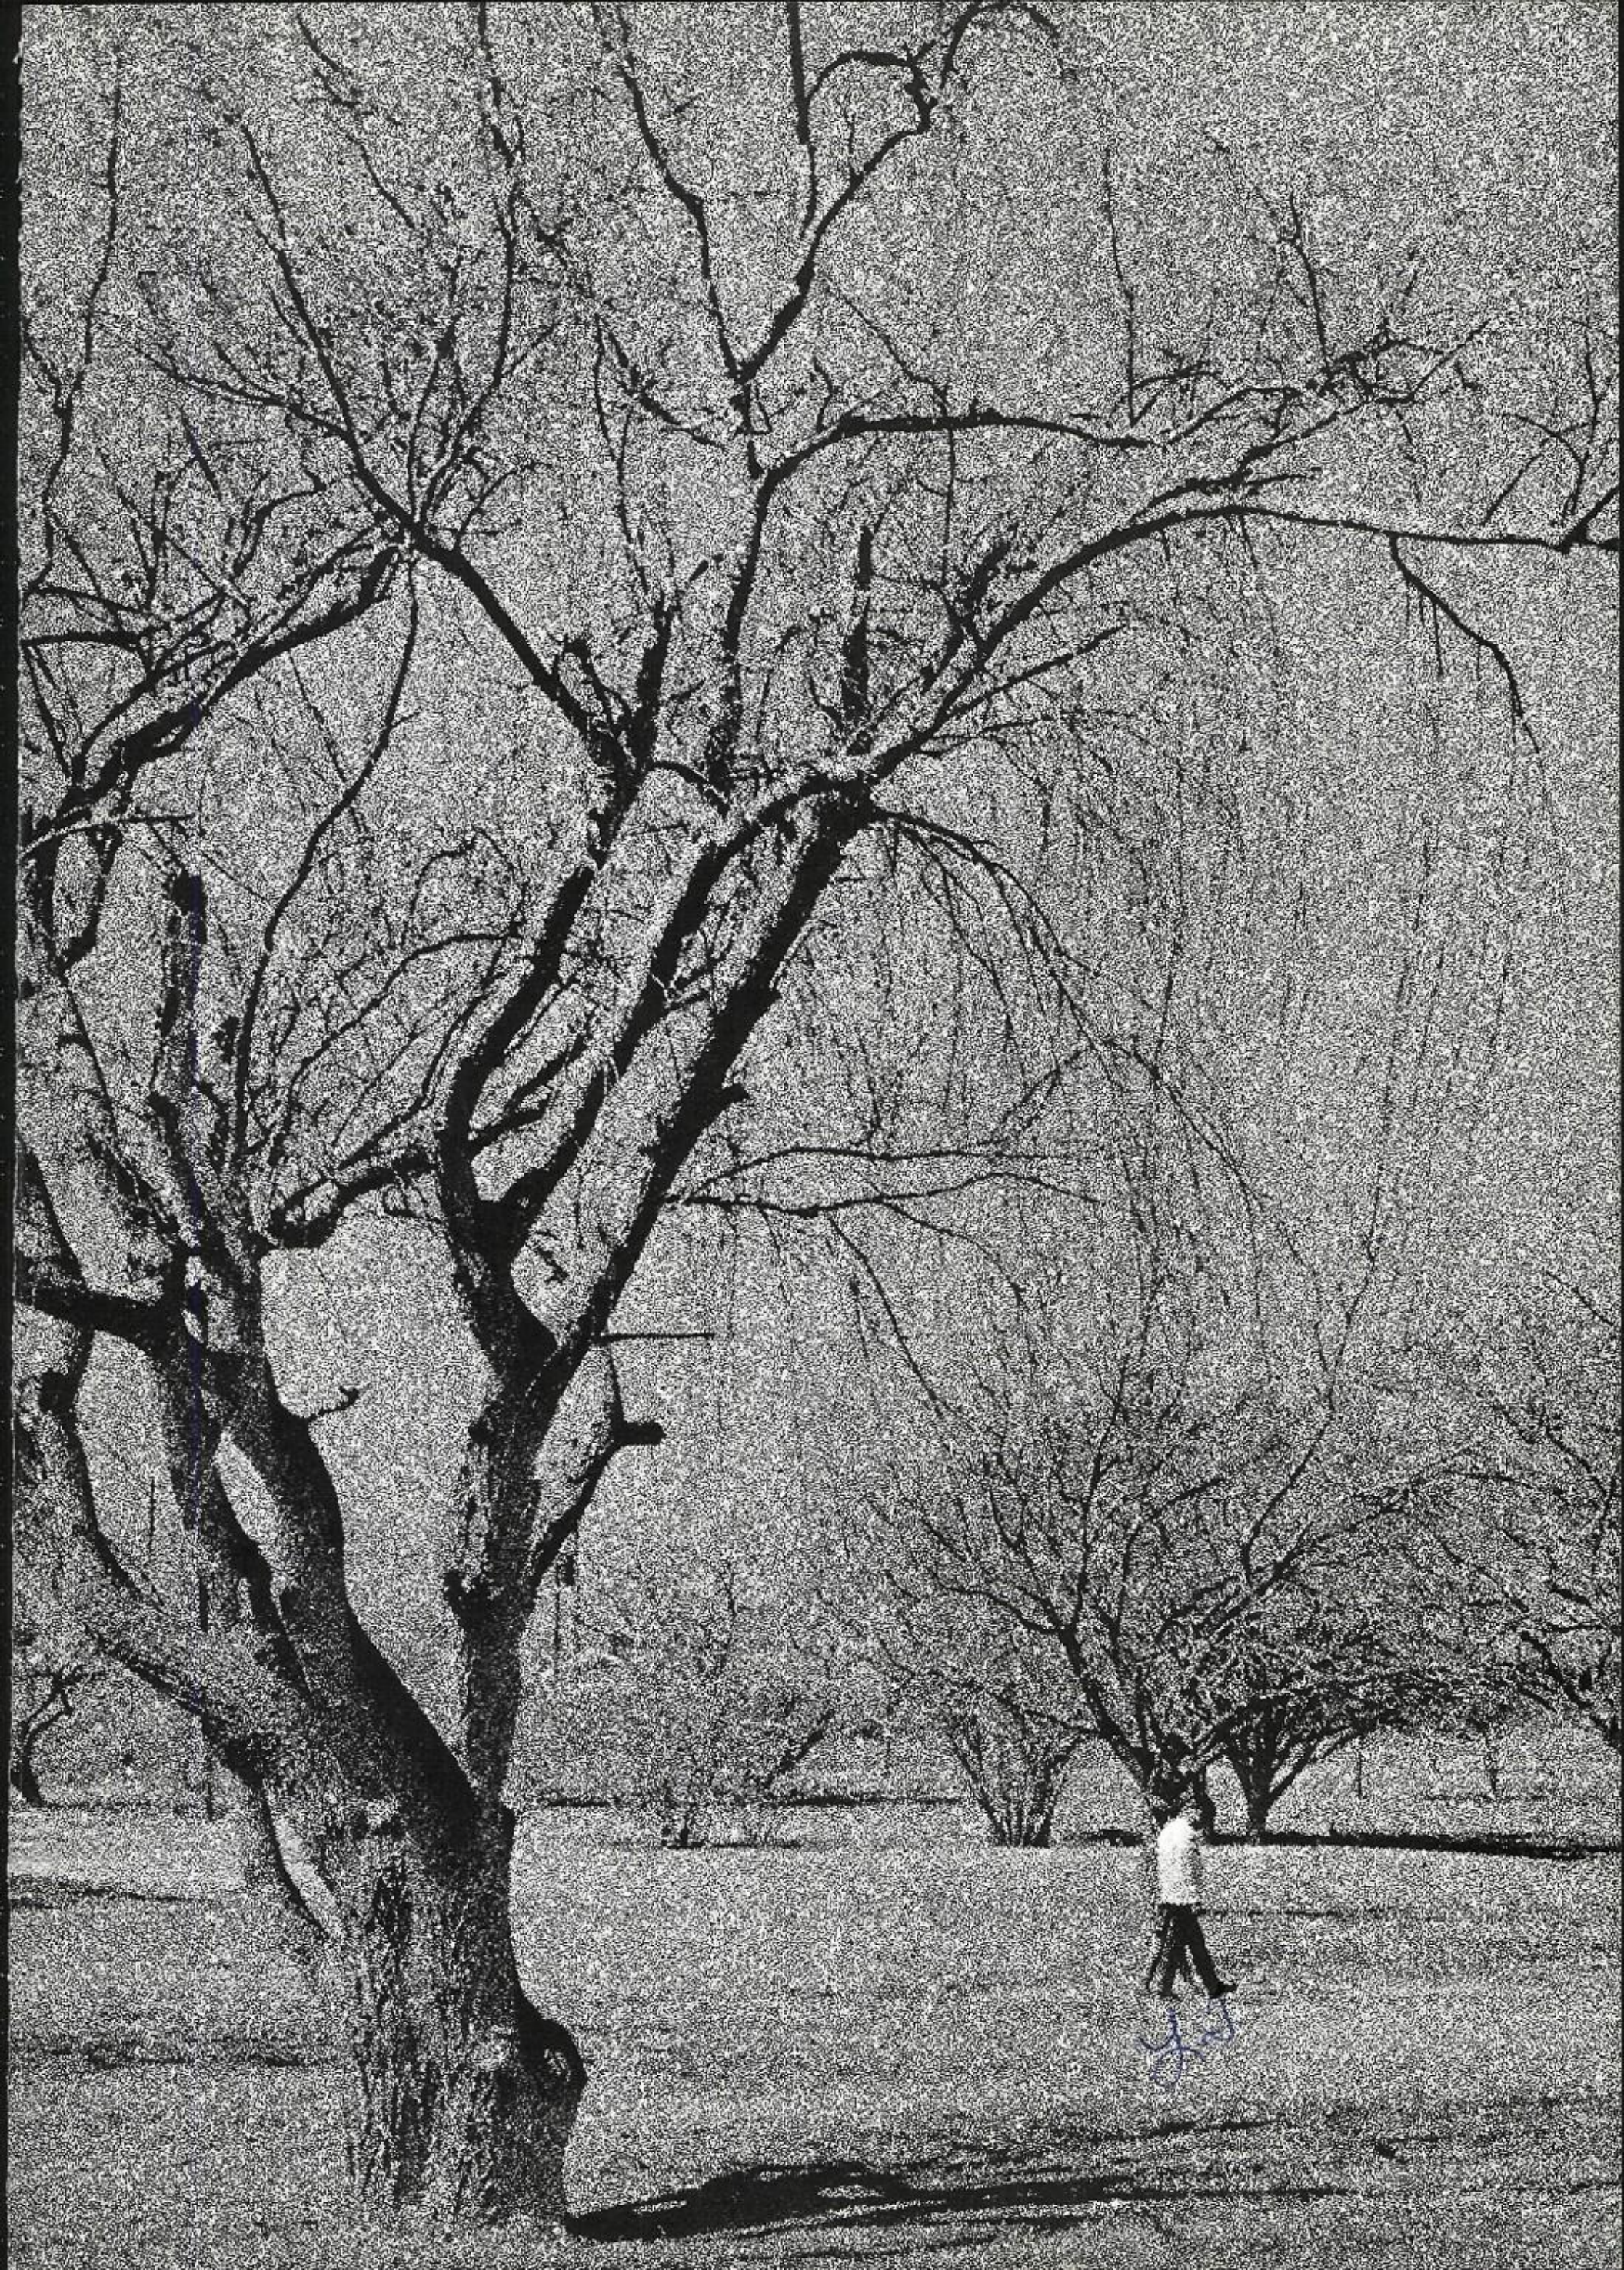
the words connected with 1969 . . .

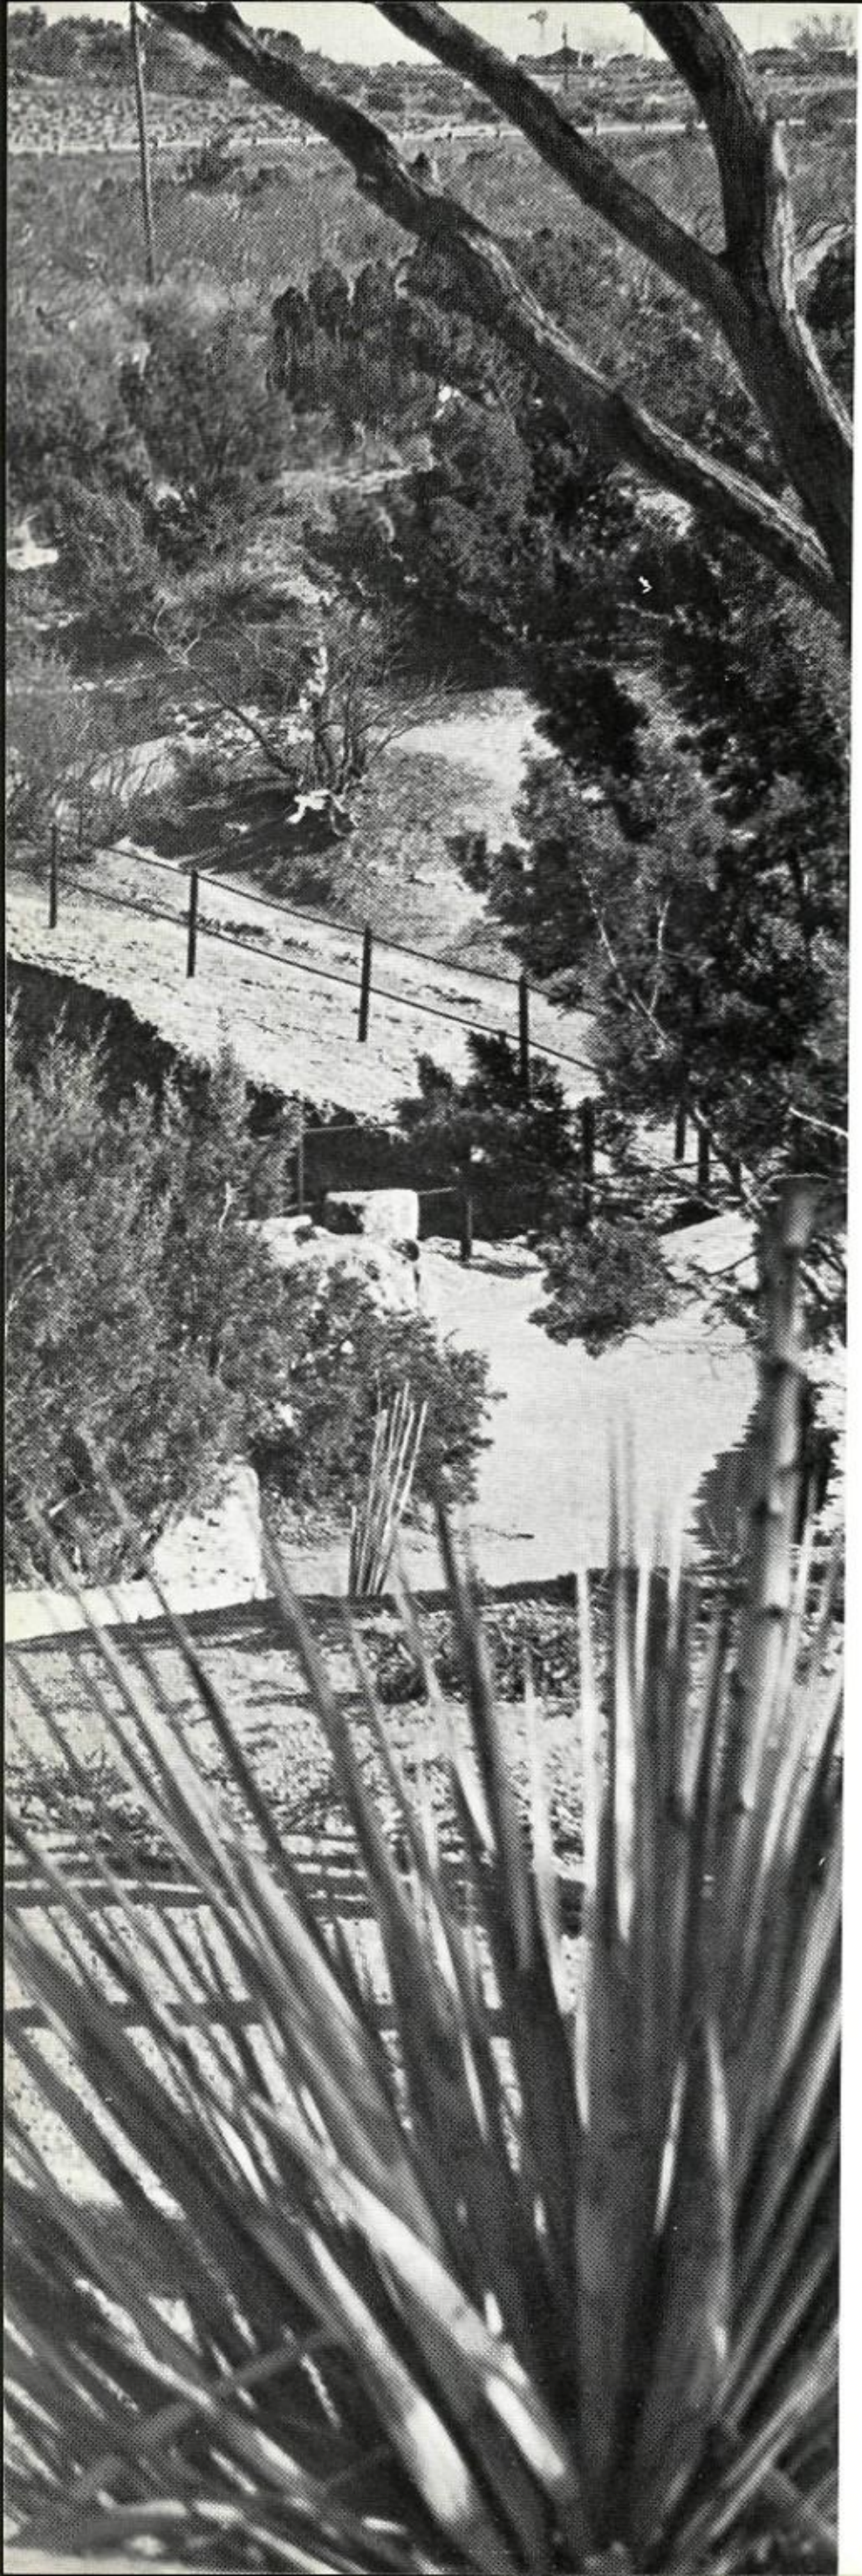
Life – a mass of feelings, a blur, a shadow . . .

We search for meaning in a world
we do not understand.
We face the future
with uncertainty,
the past with regret,
and doubt is ever-present.

We long for something concrete,
something we can depend upon,
and so we look to the past –
the shadow of life
as we once knew it.

However, life continues,
and the past lengthens.
The tomorrows become yesterdays,
for life is but a moving shadow.





The shadows have lengthened into darkness, the final deadline quickly approaches, and now I must finish this last page. It is with great sadness that I do this because it symbolizes the end of a year – a year which will always contain wonderful memories of friends and events. This year has been full of so many exciting times, and yet the little things that occurred every day are the ones that now seem most precious – the coffee in the lab, the hours spent in the wee hours of the morning working to meet a deadline, the private jokes known only to the staff, and so many other things that once seemed so insignificant and now have so much meaning.

This page would not be complete without including the names of a truly dedicated staff who put their hearts into the production of this book. My most heartfelt thanks go to . . .

Paula Green, associate editor, who not only was responsible for a great faculty section, but who was always around to lend a hand and add some merriment to the lab,

Guynn Bonner, whose student life section will bring back happy memories for years to come for every member of BSHS,

Carolyn Crawford, organizations editor, for all the time she spent in order to give this section a new look,

Medena Furqueron, whose notables section added an extra sparkle to the entire book,

Beth Graumann, senior editor, who spent hours in order to present an illustrious class and their activities,

Barry Knocke, sports editor, who had the mammoth job of keeping track of all the athletic events,

Glynna Jones, Linda Crawford, Susan Cape, Patti Spier, Mary Ellen Hedges, Ellen Gossett, and Robin Hoover, those wonderful junior assistants who were always ready and willing to do all the tedious jobs that go into a yearbook,

Mike Alexander, Bruce Hicks, and Scott Medford, our invincible photographers who were responsible for a large majority of the pictures in this book, Howard's Studio and especially Mrs. Clarinda Harris, for the pictures in the notables section,

Mr. Frank Brandon, an excellent photographer who did a grand job on the school board picture,

Mr. Floyd Hobson, Taylor Publishing Company, who was always available to help us with technical problems,

Texas Tech Journalism Department, for their advice and assistance, and the faculty and administrators of BSHS who were constantly willing to give their full cooperation.

A very special thanks must go to a very dear and wonderful friend of mine, Mrs. Erma Steward, without whose help and guidance this yearbook could not have been completed. Mere words could never express my appreciation for all the wonderful ways in which she has helped me during these past two years, but it is enough just to say that she will always hold a very special place in my memories.

Now it is time for a final good-bye.

Kenny -
Well I stuck it
heck, I stuck it have your in any of my classes,
I don't know if I am fortunate or not! All kidding aside, good luck!
Doug

Kenny -
What do you think about us graduating?
It really doesn't seem possible, does it? We've really had some good times, haven't we? I don't guess it would have been the same without you being around all this time. Even though we haven't been as close friends lately as we used to be you know I've still come to "talk."
when I wanted to have a good "talk."
Next year your letter not forget me and your letter come see me before you take off to school. Be good to Alumna, she's a great girl.

Love Ya,
Rita

Kenny -
Only a few more days, and we'll be through with high school it's true, we deserve it! It's sad how it's to have to your own undertaker!!

Kenny Pick

Kenny -

Well we won't call this the end - how about the beginning. We have really had some unforgettable times during our dear ole B & H S days. I hope our fabulous foursome never sees its end. There's to many more great times!

Love Always

Kenny I had some great times together. Let's we are still in the best one are still in front of us. This summer we're going to go to Mexico and even some days and maybe we can find some thing else to. Some day your going to have to visit me & the family & go on a great time.

Ken - Ken -
My God, what can I say to an ole Partner like you I don't think that there enough room to say it all I thought I would that all. Remember the night that Colfax boy things didn't turn out just like we waited
So long Ken A genuine Person like you can't stay from going a way in going like!
Ronnie

Bonnie -
Well lady, it's almost over, one more year!
Let's make sure we graduate next year. Bonnie, I've always got a kick out of
you. Remember the time you + Roger ex. Good days
don't forget us.

Good Luck in really English is really over and I want that the best. We've been friends for quite a while and I hope that we remain friends for some great times. I've had some great times past years
I hope you have many more Good luck to a great Guy!

KENNY we've had a lot of fun together. I have enjoyed being friends with you & I hope we stay friends forever.
We've still got a lot of Hell-raising to do, so let's get after it before
I leave.
Good luck, Really
